Clampation, and whose reputation as a boxer is international, has signed up articles with a "manager," who, regardless of any agreements, is entitled to half of his life's proceeds. On the 14th of the month he was united in matrimony to Mrs. Cecilia Payne at Campbellton Dy Father Wallace in the Campbellton Catholic church.

Recently the soldier requested a few weeks' leave and during the course of his trip through the province, which culminated in the happy event, vigited the "old" boys of the 65th Battery at Woodstock, where he was at one time stationed. He was also welcomed by his many friends at Fredericton.

"Jack" has again returned to duty with the battalion in the city and will continue to assist in the physical development of the men in the unit.
