POLITICAL IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Warmest Contest Will Be That in the County of Colchester.

SET AGAINST LAURENCE.

Conservatives Making Every Effort to Down Him, Still It Looks Like Liberal Victory--Restarting of the Iron Works--General News of Truro, Sept. 21--A glance over the province at the political situation shows that the contest in Colchester is more keen, and waxing warmer than in any other constituency. The issue here probably means more than it ever did and is considered certainly more important than in any other county. Speaker Laurence, who has sat in the local house unintermittently for the last 15 years, and B. F. Pearson, one of the most resolute men in Canada, make a good team and a strong one. Stairs and the Conservative ticket, are men of money and their heels have their knives out for Mr. Laurence. The cry here has raised throughout the riding is "down Laurence." To do this the Conservatives have summoned every worker or posses, and are leaving no stone unturned, and as one of their executive stated to his hand recently, "if we are pushed at the end we will do more than any other man for the vote." But Laurence is not to be downed and the prospects from every polling station point to a good majority for Laurence, and Pearson. Most of the day before yesterday night by both parties and on nomination day of next week there will be a joint meeting in the Opera House, at which the four candidates will deliver addresses. Mr. Pearson, with his great mind for business enterprise, has bonded the iron property at Anselma Mines for two months, and it is altogether likely that the deal will be consummated even before election day. This will mean the restarting of the Lonsdale Iron Works, and with this in view, the Mines are almost sure to go for the Liberal candidate.

The corrupt practices, "misuse of road money" and "rickety railway deals of the government," as well as their "attempted steal of the $671,000 returned subsidy money" for the Lonsdale Iron Works, is the issue that is being raised throughout the riding. The Liberals are holding a meeting at Lower Five Islands tonight. Hon. W. T. Phips and Hance Logan, M. P., are the principal speakers. G. E. Pearson (son of B. F.) and Charles Arnold McNelly are also on the stump. The latter is the son of the late Mr. McNelly, and is acting as secretary for the Liberal Association. His Yankee manner and modes of business which he has brought home with him have won him a large following. Mr. Pearson, of Greenspond, Newfoundland, is visiting here tonight. In Truro, in the morning, Mrs. Dickie, wife of Martin Dickie, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Truro, and her sister, Miss Eaton, of Montreal, have gone to Boston on a few days' visit. Mr. Dickie, in company with President T. E. Kenny, went north today on business.

Truro people who have attended the provincial exhibition in Halifax this year are greatly disappointed and pronounce it a failure. Much dissatisfaction was felt by thousands who went on the earlier days to witness the driving horses to find that arrangements had been incomplete and that the supposed big show had not begun.
