"THE man who has raised a cabbage-head has done more good than all the metaphysicians in the world," said a stump orator at a meeting.

"Then," said a wag, "your mother ought to have had the premium."

A YOUNG lady of extraordinary capacity addressed the following letter to her cousin: We is all well, and mother's got the his Terricks; brother Tom is got the Hupin Kaugh, and sister Ann has got a babe, and I hope these few lines will find you the same, rite sunc. Your affectionate kusen."

WHEN you see two young persons seated in the centre of a pew in church, you can make up your mind that they are engaged, or going to be; but when one is at one end and the other at the foot of the pew, you can immediately determine that they are married.

NEVER marry a man until you have seen him eat. Let the candidate for your hand, ladies, pass through the ordeal of eating soft-boiled eggs. If he can do it and leave the table-cloth, the napkin, and his shirt unspotted, take him. Try him next with a sparerib. If he accomplishes this feat without putting out one of his own eyes, or pitching the bones into your lap, name the wedding-day at once—he will do to the to.
