

The Moderator and Clerk of Session, Mr. Thomas McCracken, presented a full statement from the Session, showing the work done during the year. On motion the report was received and adopted.

Then followed full and satisfactory reports from the different organizations of the Congregation. These were considered seriatim, finally adopted and ordered to receive a place in the annual printed report.

The election of Managers to fill the place of the retiring Managers was then proceeded with. The Chairman named Mr. L. Scruton and Mr. W. Jardine, scrutineers.

Nominations having been made and a ballot taken, the Scrutineers reported that Mr. Wm. McCracken, Mr. John Wylie, Mr. N. A. Steen and Mr. Jas. Douglas, Jr., had received the highest votes, and the Chairman declared them duly elected.

Mr. John McCaulay, one of the Managers, having been called to the office of Elder in the Congregation, tendered his resignation as Manager. After discussion Mr. McCauley withdrew his resignation.

The Moderator, on behalf of the Session, introduced the matter of obtaining historical facts in connection with the establishment, etc., of this Congregation. The matter was well received, and the following Committee was appointed to procure same, and report at the next annual meeting ;—Mr. Wm. Steen, Mr. George Murray, Rev. R. J. M. Glassford, Mr. T. K. Beaty and Mr. James McClure, Sr.

On motion, duly seconded, Mr. J. B. Leslie and Mr. F. W. Morgan were appointed Auditors for the year 1891.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned, the benediction being pronounced by the Chairman.
