A SUCCESSFUL PICNIC

The "GGe-Acquainted Club," London's popular colored organization, held their third annual picnic at Springbank Park on Saturday, July 21, 1928. Delightful weather and a jolly crowd helped to make this event the best yet held. A much larger crowd than last year was in attendance and every one expressed himself as having had the time of their lives, which was very gratifying to the officers and members of the club.

A ball game between Mrs. Powers' "Has-Beens" and Mrs. Gibsons' "Never-Wasers" was first on a very extensive program. This was the second meeting of these two teams under the leadership of Mrs. Powers and Mrs. Gibson, the two pitching stars of their respective teams. Each has won one game and all look forward to next year's event to see who will be the winner. Fast playing and wonderful pitching kept the score down. Mrs. Powers' team emerging victor by th escore of 8 to 9. "Hank" Anderson, "Bud" Kelly, BBill Butler, Fred Ball and Bill Harrison were outstanding stars when it came to talking and umpire-baiting. These "Old Men" have been confined to their homes ever since. Charles Poindexter and Jack Lucas made very good? umpires. Miss Carol Harrison, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. Nevels, R. Bradby, Jr., Mrs. Pearl Brown did some wonderful fielding, while the batting stars were Bertha Moxley, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Butler Mrs. Powers and Miss M. Harrison. Other fast players were Theolia Thompson, Phyllis Howard, "Chub" Kelly and Mrs. Cabrera. After the ball game the following races were run.

Six years and under, Lloyd Kelly, Freddie Jenkins, Verna Brown; Girls' race, Evelyn Jenkins, Dorothy Moxley, Kathleen Jenkins; boys' race, Jimmie Jenkins, Freddie Kelly; jockey race, Chas. Poindexter, jockey, Birdie Jenkins; mixed coat race, Mrs. Pearl Brown and Mr. Kelly; thread and needle race; Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Lucas; snow shoe race, Mrs. Powers; candle race, Rev. Mrs. Bradby and Mr. Nevels; blind pig race, Mrs. Jenkins and Jimmie Jenkins; ball throwing, Mrs. Bertha Moxley; fat ladies' race, Mrs. Wilson; special ladies' race, Bertha Moxley.

Every event was closely contested, especially the ball throwing, Mrs. Waller and Mrs. Gibson making Mrs. Moxley extend herself to the limit to win.

Out-of-town visitors present were: Mrs. Rev. R. L. Bradby and children, Mrs. "Bud" Powers, Mrs. May Waller, Mrs. Florence Mills, Mrs. Mae Allen, Mrs. Emma Gibson, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Nevels, of Appin, Ont.; Mrs. H. Booker, of Longwood, Ont.; The Misses Carol and Mrs. Margaret Harrison and brother William, of Stratford, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Butler and family, of Lucan, Ont.; Mrs. Harris and children, of Hamilton, Ont.; Mr. La Verne Jones, of Brantford, Ont.

The refreshment committee excelled themselves in providing a wonderful supper, of which all were invited to partake. Every one left for theri homes at a late hour, vowing to return next year. The committee in charge were the following: all the ladies of the club under the direction of Mrs. Moxley, comprised the refreshment committee; Mr. Poindexter, chairman of the sports; Mr. Lucas, chairman of the grounds, and Mrs. Cabrera, head of the prize committee.

FIDELITY

My dear little friends that I always will love,
Grow up and get married and away from me rove.
But I think that their hearts remain true to me yet.
And with all that attracts them, they will not forget.
The best that heaven gives I invoke for them all,
And that heaven may be theirs, if heaven should call
Them away from this beautiful earth we all love.
It will be to a more beautiful home above.
But you must live the life God has chosen for you,
And not follow your own inclinations is true;
But GoGd knows what is best and He will reveal
Such love as no other you ever could feel.
Then seek to know Him, His instructions obey,
For true happiness is found in no other way.

—S. E. G. Allen.

LONDON

Anniversary services of the Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People were held last Sunday afternoon at the Hill Street Baptist Church. Mr. J. A. Dyer delivered one of the best sermons ever delivered in that church. He spoke on "The work to great and large and we separated upon the wall one far from another."

He gave his hearers some wonderful advice in national and race pride, exhorting them to ever look up and strive onward and to seek to bring out the best there is in them as individuals and as a race. Rev. A. E. Richardson, of the A. M. E. Church, spoke also. He expressed the desire to become more intimately connected with the league.

A. J. E. Butler, president of the league, gave a very learned and instructive address upon the aims, objects and work of the league. A special choir made up of the league members and friends rendered appropriate music for the occasion. Mrs. Pearl Kelly presided at the organ. The league is well pleased with last Sunday's services.

Everybody is looking forward to the annual picnic of the Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People to be held at Springbank Park on Saturday, July 28. There will be sports for old and young, so don't fail to attend and get a valuable prize.

Our new pastor, Rev. E. A. Richardson, and family are now stationed in the parsonage. We trust the friends of the city will make them feel right at home in our midst.
