

APPENDIX.

of such expenditure, showing the sum advanced to the accountant, the balance (if any) remaining in his hands, and the amount of the monies hereby appropriated to the purpose for which such advance shall have been made, remaining unexpended in the hands of the receiver-general, and that every such account shall be supported by vouchers therein distinctly referred to by numbers corresponding to the numbering of the items in such account, and shall be made up to and closed on the thirty-first day of December in each year during which such expenditure shall be made, and shall be attested before a justice of the superior court or a justice of the peace, and shall be transmitted to the officer whose duty it shall be to receive such account, within fifteen days next after the expiration of the said periods respectively.

XXX. And be it enacted, that the due application of the monies received for the public uses of the province under the authority of this Act, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, and in such manner and form as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall direct; and that a detailed account of all such monies shall be laid before the several branches of the Provincial Legislature within the first fifteen days of the then next session thereof.

XXXI. And be it enacted, that the word "master," whenever used in this Act, shall be held to apply to any person in command of a vessel; the word "vessel" shall include all ships, vessels, or craft of any kind carrying passengers; the word "passengers" shall apply to all passengers as well as to emigrants usually and commonly known and understood as such, and not to troops or military pensioners and their families, who are carried in transports or at the expense of the Imperial Government; the word "quarantine" shall apply to Grosse Isle, or other places at which such quarantine shall be directed to be performed; and any word importing the singular number shall include a plurality of persons or things, unless there be something in the context inconsistent with such interpretation.
