

At tomorrow's Bears game

Pie throw on — it's cream at the top

Two causes of heart trouble are a lack of exercise and an abundance of frustration. The Rec Students Society has found a way for you to deal with both at the same time.

Why not throw a pie at someone who bugs you? On February 3 at the Golden Bears - Thunderbirds basketball game, the RSS and the Heart Fund will provide pies and a whole bunch of people who deserve what will be coming to them.

Do you find the Gateway dry and boring? Tell editor Loreen Lennon, when you smuch a banana cream in her face.

If the line for Loreen is too long (her staff love her so), the entire SU executive will be there. Coconut cream in the clustered curls of Cheryl Hume!

Other available victims include the five presidential candidates, sports editor John Stewart, CJSR director Gary McGowan and a host of lesser but equally deserving dregs. For a minimum $1 contribution, you can do your heart some good. And somebody else's as well.

Fotty plans to upgrade FOS

The newly appointed director of Freshman Orientation Seminars (FOS) plans to upgrade the program and provide a more structured series of seminars.

Wayne Fotty, a third year arts student, said smaller groups with a more formal atmosphere would encourage discussion during the seminars. Other plans include improving the leader training program and improving the presentation of the material.

As a seminar coordinator for the last three years and speaker of the FOS policy board last year, Fotty is experienced with the workings of his job. One of his first duties will be to select a new staff.

Board of

The Gateway, in its SU election information program, asked Board of Governors candidates Mike Ford and Rhon Rose. Each answered the following five questions.

1. What motivated you to run for the Board of Governors (as opposed to Students' Council or General Faculties Council, for example)?

2. What do you feel is the role of the B of G in university structure?

3. What do you hope to accomplish for students as B of G student representative?

4. SU president Cheryl Hume has charged that the B of G does not adequately represent the university community because of the government's stance with conservative businessmen. Do you agree? Please comment.

5. What is your opinion on these three issues with which the Board must deal in the coming year?

a) Lister Hall - the problem of student government - the issue of fees for residence.

b) the Priorities Report

c) University policy regarding for use of space by campus groups.
