Men's Hockey Tigers put together 60 minutes of solid hockey Saturday, overpowering the University of St. Thomas Tommies 8-2 in AUSA hockey action.

The Tigers, who led 2-1 and 5-1 after the first and second periods respectively, dominated the contest which saw them outshoot the Tommies 54-20.

"We came prepared to play 60 minutes of hockey," said Tiger coach Peter Esdale.

Esdale said both goalkeepers played well, and added it was a difficult game for Tiger netminder Glen Ernst because play was in the Tommie's end for much of the game. While preferable to seeing too much action, "seeing too little can make it hard for a goaltender to stay sharp," he said.

The Tigers were led offensively by Stephen Johnson who had two goals, with singles coming from Terry Crowe, Peter Glynn, Al Wright, Blaine Kulak, Bob Crawford and Andrew Tench. Paul Herron also had a fine offense game for the Tigers adding three assists.

The Tigers next see action November 11-12 when they travel to the United States to take on Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and then November 13 when they meet the University of Lowell.

Womens' volleyball

by Jill Phillips

It was an exciting fun-filled match when the Dalhousie women's volleyball team met with their past counterparts on the evening of November 5. The match ended with the Alumnists on top, winning 2 of 3 games 15-11, 11-15, and 15-10.

Returning to the Dal court and playing for the Alumni were twenty-four former Tigers. Included in their line-up were Debbie Parter, Cindi Rice Town-sent, and Linda Treaver. Mary Kimble, who last played for Dal in 1970, and Chris Barnes, who left the team in 1972 were the most experienced returners. Two Canadian national champions were also present—Karen Fraser and Karin Maessen. The entire team played well and gave the Varsity team some tough competition. Lesley Barnes, an alumnist, refereed for the game.

Although the Tigers were not triumphant they did play a challenging set of games. Leading the team in serving stats was Simona Vartel with 9 points. Brenda Turner scored 6 points.

Tigers will be playing Francis Xavier in Antigonish on Nov. 11, and they will be participating in the Schooner Classic in Sidney on Nov. 12.

Don't forget to attend the Remembrance Bash Thursday, Nov. 10, 9 p.m. at the Phi Kappa Pi Fraternity House, 1770 Robie Street.
