

"Then be what we are and speak what we think, and in all things keep ourselves loyal to truth."—Longfellow.

Elizabeth Wicher.

"He prayeth best who leaves unguessed
The mystery of another's breast.
Why cheeks grow pale, why eyes o'erflow,
Or heads are white, thou need'st not know.
Enough to note by many a sign
That every heart hath needs like thine."—Whittier.

Lucinda C. Pritchard.

"To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved."

Walter Holly.

"Look up and not down; look forward and not back; look out and not in;
lend a hand."—Edward E. Hale.

Mrs. Walter Holly. M. L. S.

"Open the windows, light and God stream in.—Hauptmann."

Mary Baillie.

"A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth."—JESUS.

W. S. Pritchard.

"A word of kindness is seldom spoken in vain. It is a seed which even when dropped by chance, springs up a flower."—James Martineau.

S. Bean.

"Love is the essence of Life;
Life is a blessing from God;
God places love in ascendance;
Why not then love and please God."

N. G. O.

"The path of glory leads but to the grave."—Thomas Gray.

Innes Ogilvey.

"Why comes temptation, but for man to meet
And master, and make crouch beneath his feet,
And so be pedestalled in triumph?"—Browning.

Edna L. Austin.

"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin."—Shakespeare.

A. R. Austin.

"Talk not of wasted affection — affection never was wasted."—Longfellow.
