

channel where the

the river is Beau-

small village at the
the south bank of
els enter the Beau-
locks—and pass
Cascades, Cedars
St. Francis, a dis-
the north bank, a
enters into the St.

the rapids at Ce-
enters the smooth
rence, only, how-
re broken in upon

S.

ulsson Pointe, in
nd and Isle aux
comes sweeping
the St. Lawrence, St. Louis will be

ree floating light-
th bank of river.

s is an Indian vil-
bank of the river,
La Chine Rapids.
n the Indians that
the Jesuits, who
gas," or "praying
ably a misnomer,
ned for their pre-
their neighboura
provinces. The
ga subsist chiefly
nd rafts down to
by a trade in moc-
They are mostly
ossess an elegant

waga Indians are

RAFTS OF LUMBER "RUNNING" THE RAPIDS, AT CEDARS, ON THE ST. LAWRENCE.

