WINNIPEG.—Residence of Charles Evans, 477 Merriam Street, Fort Rouge, burned, March 11. Origin, overheated stove pipe. Loss covered by insurance. Old Indian industrial school at St. Boniface, now used by Oblate Order, as a juniorate, destroyed March 10. Loss, $15,000, includes valuable library of 5,000 volumes including a dictionary of Indian languages in M. S. It is doubtful if this could be duplicated. Building covered by insurance. Oblate Order had $3,000 insurance, but this will not compensate for loss. Fire in McLaughlin Carriage Company's building, corner of Ross and Princess streets, did damage estimated at $20,000, March 4, mostly by smoke and water. Fire started near elevator shaft and ran up three floors. McDonald Company's tent and mattress factory, Logan Avenue, damaged, March 8. Fire confined to upper floor, and main loss in stock. Insurance, on stock $2,500; on machinery, $1,500; on building, $6,000.
