

by a majority of the twenty-four Grand Jurymen who may be summoned to attend the respective County Courts :—

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly, that in future, in order to obtain a Tavern License, it shall be sufficient that the same be recommended by a majority of the Grand Jurors who may be in attendance ; but in all other respects the provisions of the herein recited Act shall be complied with.

16 Vic, cap 10. Recommendation of majority of Grand Jurors necessary to obtain Tavern License, in addition to other requisites.

II. Any person or persons not keeping an Inn or Tavern, but who shall obtain a license for the sale of fermented or distilled spirituous liquors by retail, in less quantities than one quart, under the Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “an Act to consolidate the several Acts regulating the sale by license of Spirituous and other Liquors,” and who shall suffer any such Liquor sold by him, her or them, to be drank in his, her or their store, house, shop, booth, or other premises, shall forfeit and pay for the first offence the sum of five pounds, and for every subsequent offence the sum of ten pounds, to be recovered with costs in way and manner as directed by the fourteenth and eighteenth sections of the last herein recited Act; but all persons who shall have obtained licenses to sell or retail spirituous liquors before the passing of this Act as aforesaid, shall, and may continue to sell and retail the same until the expiration of the term for which such license may have been granted.

Penalty on person not keeping tavern, &c, who obtains license to sell spirituous liquors in less quantities than one quart, allowing liquor sold by him to be drank in his store, &c.

Mode of recovery of penalty.

Persons having obtained license previous to this Act may continue to retail until the expiration of the license, &c.

III. This Act shall continue and be in force so long as the Acts of which this is an amendment shall be in force, and no longer.

Continuance of Act.