Messages From

Our Tourists

The Ontario is receiving many images from the party of tourists recently sent to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Mr. Harold Simmons, writing from Los Angeles, Cal., says: "We arrived here last night from San Diego. We are certainly having a fine trip and you made very wise choice in selecting Mr. Lane to conduct us, he gives us so many pleasant surprises."
Miss Anna Hurley, writing from San Francisco, sends this message:
"Well here we are at the wonderful exposition with everyone well and more than delighted with the trip.
We are proud to be Canadians. The Canadian exhibit is the best on the grounds. We called on Col. Hutchison who has charge of the Canadian building. He is an old friend of father's."
Miss Ethel Lowery also forwards a message from the Great Exposition "Just a line to let you know we are all having the time of our lives. It is very wonderful and we all appreciate it so much. I could not begin to describe how grand the exposition really is. We are all sorry to leave on our homeward journey from here."DOCTORS ADVISE OPERATIONSSaved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.Swarthmore, Penn.—"For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years had been unable to do any household work and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise my Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles."—Mrs.
EMILY SUMMERS, Swarthmore, Pa.

Canadian Woman's Experience.

Port William, Ont.—"I feel as if I could not tell others enough about the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was weak and tired and could not rest nights. A friend recommended your Compound and I soon gained health and strength and could not wish to sleep better. I know other women who have taken it for the same purpose and they join me in praising it."—Mrs. Wm. A. BERRY, 631 South Vicker Street, Port William, Ontario.Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.Heroic Boy Wants To Join ArmyWalked From Hampton to Belleville Says Farmer Employer Ordered him to Go—Claims He Was Overworked and Ill-treated.Ernest R. Garforth, a boy seventeen years of age, who arrived in the city yesterday and this morning expressed a willingness to enlist, told the recruiting officers a sad story of his hardships. The lad being under age and understanding that he could not yet, his ambition to go as a soldier.The youth has not been well nourished. The farmer with whom he has been working for the past three years has a claim to be paid for his services.He has been engaged on a farm near Hampton, in Durham county and claims that he was worked from morning until night, besides being ill-treated by his employer. Things reached such a crisis that the lad decided he would like to enlist and leave farmwork. The farmer is said to have told him to go and to have refused to pay him any money. The youth has not eaten and wages all the time he has been working, but he was to get $100 at the end of about three years and a half.So Garforth says he left and walked this way. This morning when the recruiting staff saw him he was wearing an overcoat that reached to his knees. This had been given him at a house at which he called on the way.
Some kind people had given him food to eat on his walk.Capt. Dr. McCall examined him and found him undernourished and not well nourished, although his physique is all right.Sergeant Doherty interested himself in the boy's behalf and it was not long before a number of citizens had supplied a suit of clothes, a pair of boots, a shirt, and tie, and a cap and a barber gave him a hair-cut. The youth was quite transformed in appearance. One citizen gave him some money.The boy will stay in Belleville and it may be he may be able to get accepted. Two citizens are taking up his case with his employer.Praises Work of Belleville ForceMr. F. J. J. Martin, crown attorney at South St. Marie has written a letter to Chief Newton complimenting the Belleville police force on their activity which resulted in the arrest of Angelo Silvestro, an Italian wanted on a serious charge at the Sgo.
He stated that if other police departments throughout the country been as active as the local force, the man would not have been at large so long. He promises the active cooperation of the South St. Marie authorities with the Belleville police in anything that they can do.Angelo Silvestro comes up for trial on Sept. 22nd.

September Wedding

Mullet-Kilpatrick

On Wednesday, September 8th the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kilpatrick was the scene of a happy evening, it being the marriage of their second daughter Carrie Blanche to Mr. Harry Mullet of Crookston. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A beautiful array of evergreens, decorated with flags and white asters occupied the bay window. Shortly at 11 o'clock as the sweet strains of the wedding march was rendered by Miss Mary Jane Gay of Frankford, the bride leaning on the arm of her father took her place beside the groom in the alcove. After the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Mr. Buck of Frankford, the guests numbering sixty were invited to the dining room, where a dainty repast was enjoyed by all.The bride was attired in cream p. decorated with overlace, silk and buttons. And the bride veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a sheaf of white asters and wore the groom's gift, a gold wrist watch.The groom's gift to the organist was a scroll brooch set with pearls.
The bride and groom received many beautiful presents, testifying to the high esteem of both.The happy couple left and showers of rice and confetti on the 2 p.m. train for Toronto. The bride's travelling suit was of blue and black plush set with white plume. Upon their return they will reside at Crookston.

On Wednesday, Sept. 15, 1915, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. R. H.
Atkins, 2nd Con. Thurlow by the Rev.
E. C. Currie of John St. Church, of

"ON THE FIELD OF HONOR"

The publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, are making a strong bid for that beautiful picture, full of pathos, entitled "On the Field of Honor". It is assumed the publishers of the Family Herald have in mind using it as a presentation plate. If that is so there is a great treat in store for readers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star this autumn. In past years The Family Herald of Montreal has been noted not only for the wonderful excellence of that journal but for many beautiful pictures. It has presented to its readers. The Family Herald has a name for succeeding in anything it undertakes, and we feel sure if it is humanly possible to secure "On the Field of Honor," that the publishers will succeed in getting it "On the Field of Honor" is attracting widespread attention in Europe.Red Cross and RecruitingThe populous and public spirited district of Massawissa Mountain View and Rossmore failed in force Tuesday night at Mr. Hutt's spacious lawn, where tents were erected for the various departments of energetic work in which the ladies have been engaged, and for the decoration of the visitors. A portion of many vehicle cars with their brilliant lights and the fascinating fancy dresses of the young ladies, draped in flags and gay colors, added to the picturesqueness of the scene. Music by the choir and a solo—"Sister Susie's Sewing Shirts for Soldiers," were interspersed with the eloquent speeches by Nelson Parliament, M.P.P., Col. W. N.
Foster, R.C.M., and Mr. H. F. Ketch-eson of Belleville. Miss Falkner has
