C. P. R. Will Bear His-True Designation.

In honor of the gallant French General, who has been in command of the operations at Verdun during the terrific onslaughts delivered by the Germans, the junction point of the Kettle Valley Railway with the main line of the C. P. R., near the station of Hope, on the north side of the Fraser River, has been named Petain. The appellation appears in the new summer time schedules, which are now in the printer's hands, and will be issued shortly.

The new time tables will become effective on June 4th, as previously announced. The junction point of the Kettle Valley and the C. P. R. lines near Otter Summit ,where the Spences Bridge branch of the latter road ends, has been designated Bro-die as a compliment to H. W. Bro-general passengtr agent for the
