SEVERELY INJURED

Second Baseman Dundas Has Leg Broken

Ran Into by Catcher Douse of Amaranths While Running Bases.

Constable Dundas of the quartermaster's store at the barracks is today lying on his back at the police hospital suffering intense pain from a severe injury sustained by him in the baseball game yesterday evening. Dundas is a member of the Civil Service team and played second base. The accident occurred in the seventh inning of last night's game and when Douse of the Amaranth team made a hard run from first to second. Dundas was playing on the base line instead of behind it, and as the play was a very close one Douse, the base runner, was forced to slide to prevent being put out. The result was that he ran into Dundas with terrific force, both men going to the ground in such a mix-up that Dundas' left knee was both fractured and dislocated just below the joint, the dislocation being so great as to tear the skin and flesh apart. Dr. A. F. Edwards and Police Surgeon Thompson hastened from the grandstand to the injured man who was soon carried by other members of the Civil Service team to the police hospital. The injured limb soon become much swollen and up to noon today the swelling had not been sufficiently reduced to permit of its being set and dress-The delayed ball game was con-
