Tributes to the Memory of

IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS IS

The Parliament Building Draped for the Chiertain.

LYING IN STATE

A State Funeral will Take Place on Thursday.

OTTAWA, June 8.—To-day every-body is wearing the emblems of mourning, and the halls of legislation themselves are assuming a funerel gloom. This morning the Tower entrance to Parliament buildings was decked in black, and the interior of Commons chamber was festooned with crape. The Commons presents a novel and imposing appearance. Never before. The Commons presents a novel and imposing appearance. Never before, says the Sergeant-at-Arms, has the stately hall been submitted to the artifices of the funeral decorator. Along the leng reach of galleries the dark cloth is spread, while above the Speaker's dais it sits in heavy folds. But the point of interest which first attracts the attention on entering the chamber, is the seat which for twelve sessions the late Premier has occupied. chamber, is the seat which for twelve sessions the late Premier has occupied. The chair is a mass of crape set off with rosettes. The desk at which Sir John wrote is also draped, and lying prone upon it is a shield of white roses, bearing the legend, worked in smaller flowers, "Our Chief."

To-night, in response to the order of the House, that a State funeral shall be accorded the illustrious dead, preparations for the lying in state are being made in the Senate chamber. The senatorial seats have been removed, a pure white carpet has been spread, and a catafalque has been erected. To this chamber will be removed early to-morrow the mortal remains of the chieftain, which, arrayed in the glittering uniform of an Imperial Privy Councillor, have this afternoon lain at Earnscliffe.

panion in life, who is now bowed down with grief. The sad proceedings terminated with an adjournment until Tuesday of next week, when it is expected a new Government will be a support of the same terminated. pected a new Government will be formed, and business will be in shape for legislative action.

Before the House rose, however, mauries and Mr. Mills to the politic situation. Both gentlemen are opinion that until his Excellency call upon a gentleman to become his chief adviser, which up to to-night he has not done, the House should daily meet to receive a report of progress. This is the English practice, and it is the practice which has been followed in Canada on former occasions when Governments have dissolved. The late Ministers, Sir Hector Langeving and Sir Lehr Thompson were not disand Sir John Thompson, were not disposed to concur in the view as to the daily meetings, but Sir John Thompson agreed that a Ministry should be formed with the least possible delay It is a matter of surprise that hi Excellency has not already chosen a successor to the late Premier, for an interregnum of even a few days is sometimes fraught with danger.

Immediately after the House rose this afternoon a meeting of the supporters of the Government was held.

at which a representative from each Province was chosen for a committee, which has the duty laid upon it of drafting an address to Lady Macdon ald, expressing sympathy and condolence with her in her bereavement. IN THE SENATE CHAMBER.

In the Senate chamber the decor tors began their work immediate upon the adjournment of the Sena this afternoon, and were busily work until long after midnight. A the Senator's desks and chairs we removed from the chamber and t red carpet covered with white holland The support made ready for the coffi was draped in black, and behind it the picture of Her Majesty rested agains a large shield covered with the Unio Jack and surrounded by a bank of the state of the s flewers. A railing was erected to keep back the threng, and funeral drapings were hung about the chamber. The body of Sir John Macdonald was breught from Earnscliffe with an escort of Dominion policeshortly after three o'clock.

LYING IN STATE.

All day to-day the body of Sir John Macdonald lay in state in the diningroom at Earnscliffe, the walls of which have been entirely covered by which have been entirely covered by heavy draperies of purple, with a broad white stripe. The dead Premier lay in his coffin clothed in his suit as Imperial Privy Councillor, which he wore at the opening of Parliament. On the left side of the breast, which is a mass of gold embroidery, is the Grand Cross of the Bath. The features are pallid, but otherwise are very natural and life-like. The hands rest in the easy position of one sleeprest in the easy position of one sleeping. At the head of the coffin wa placed a St. Andrew's cross of white placed a St. Andrew's cross of white roses and smilax, the tribute of the Marquis and Marchioness of Lorne It rested on the Canadian ensign. At the foot of the coffin was a pillow sent by the Mounted Police. All around the room were arranged floral offerings at intervals amid the purple description.

ings at intervals amid the purple respect a great national loss, for he in drapings.

The first visitor was the Governor-Canada's most illustrious son, and General, who came with his aide-de-who was in every sense Canada's capin at half-past ten o'clock in the foremost citizen and 'statesman. A forenoon, and remained for about a the period of life to which Sir John quarter of an hour gazing at the whites A. Macdonald had arrived, death countenance of the dead Prime Ministry whenever it comes cannot come unter. At eleven o'clock came the expected. Some few months ago, dur Cabinet Ministers, and after them sing the turmoil of the late election the members of the House of Com-when the country was made awarmons, the Senators and others, to the sthat on a certain day the physica known to contain an expressed direction that Kingston should be his last sting place. The will was drawn-up Hon J. J. Abbott. The estate, ough not large, will it is expected alize $100,000, the great bulk con-ting of the testimonal of $80,000 esented to $5ir John in 1870 by the presented to Sir John in 1870 by the Conservative party. The salary of the Premier, $0,000, including indem nity was spent yearly, as Sir John was a most generous entertainer. I is understood that Hen. Mr. Dewdney who has been for some years one of the trustees of the $80,000 testimonia found invesetd in Lady Macdonald' name, is an executor of Sir John's will and he also appointed the guardian of the late Premier's daughter Mary.

IN THE COMMONS.

IN THE COMMONS. OTTAWA, June 8.-The chamb the Commons was appropriate draped. Sir John's vacan ir was covered with black and or s desk was a wreath of white flower th the words "Our Chief" when th ouse assembled this afternoon. Th falleries were packed, five of the tier eing occupied by ladies, most of ther n dark colors. The members were a, n their places, many of them wearin black coats and hats. All the page lack coats and nats. All the page rore crape on their arms and nearly verybody in Ottawa is wearing uneral badge with a small photo ohe dead leader attached.

Sir Hector Langevin, as Sir John's lack with a first to risk ldest colleague, was the first to rise He spoke from manuscript in a voice hat frequently gave way in his emo

one. Mr. Laurier's tribute was quietle loquent, full of the kindest expressions towards Sir John and eulogist f him in the highest terms as a state ke of his exquisite urbanity. ELOQUENT TRIBUTES TO THE DEAD. The Speaker took the chair at o'clock.

Mr. Speaker: I desire to inform the House that in view of the fact tha the Right Hon. leader of this House died so late on Saturday night and i was impossible to communicate with hon. members earlier than the present, I thought it was only a fitting tribute to a gentleman who had occupied so prominent a position both in Parliament and in the councils of the country for so long a time, that we should exhibit some sign of mourning in this House to-day, and I took the responsibility of ordering that the symbols of mourning which are shown here to-day should be put up this morning, and I venture to express the hope that the honorable members on both sides of the House, irrespective altogether of politics, will sustain me members earlier than the presen ltogether of politics, will sustain men the action I have taken (hear

Sir Hector Langevin : Mr. Speaker, Sir Hector Langevin: Mr. Speaker, having to announce to the House the sad event that has been known for two days, I was afraid I could not trust to my memory, and I therefore thought it desirable to place in writing what I wish to say. Accordingly, I will nowread the observations I desire the offer.

will nowread the observations I desire perial Privy Councillor, have this afternoon lain at Earnscliffe.

Mr. Speaker as the oldest Privy with all the developments which brought to offer.

Mr. Speaker as the oldest Privy with all the developments which brought all title events, all the facts, with all the developments which brought canada from the position of two galleries were crowded and the legistant and is no more. After a painful illeast the occupied—the position of two weeks, death put an end associated and is no more. After a painful illeast the occupied—the position of two weeks, death put an end associated the occupied—the position of two weeks, death put an end to his earthly career on Saturday last. To tell you, Mr. Speaker, my feelings and united by a bond of paper, and funeral be given. Sir Hector was amid sobs and with the utmost difficulty that he prenounced the few sentences he had prepared for the occasion.

Mr. Laurier, who, as leader of the had a more devoted and associated for he evaluation to the House that our dear then occupied—the position of two small provinces, having nothing in common but the common allegiance and united by a bond of paper, and in the culory speaker as the oldest Privy with all the events, all the facts, with all the developments which brought can and united by a bond of paper, and in the position of two weeks, death put an end shall provinces, having nothing in common but the co aking, knowing full well that the confederation of all the British Nort iust to his French compatriots an llies, and the result was that whe onfederation came the Province buebec had confidence in him, and o

Quebec had confidence in him, and on his death-bed our great chieftain could see that his just policy has secured peace and happiness to all.

Mr. Speaker, I would have wished to continue to speak of our dear departed friend, and have spoken to you about his goodness of heart, the witness of which I have seen so often, but I feel that I must stop. My heart is full of tears. I cannet proceed further. I move that in the opinion of this House che mortal remains of the Right Honsir John A. Macdonald, G. C. B., should be publicly interred, and that this House will concur in giving to the this House will concur in giving to the ceremony a fitting degree of solemnit and importance.

MR. LAURIER'S NOBLE TRIBUTE.

Mr. Speaker: I fully appreciate the motion which the honorable gantle man has just proposed to the House and we all concur that his silence under the circumstances. is far more alloquent than any human language. quent than any human languag a be. I fully appreciate the intens of the grief which fills the soul o those who were the friends an lowers of Sir John A. Macdonald the loss of the great leader, who le life has been so closely iden with their party-a party t ich he has thrown such brillian I lustre. We, on this side of t use who are his opponents, who at believe in his policy, nor in ethods of government—we take Il share of their grief, for the l which they deplore to-day is far an tway beyond and above the ordinar compass of party strife. It is in ever espect a great national loss, for he the members of the House of Com-when the country was made awarmons, the Senators and others, to the that, on a certain day the physical number of about three hundred in all, swength of the veteran premier had During the afternoon Mrs. Fitzgib-not been equal to his courage and that bons, who is Lady Macdonald's niece, this intense labor for the time being and Miss Marjory Stewart remained had prostrated his singularly wiry in the room, each occupying a kneeling stool.

SIR JOHN'S WILL.

Some five or six years ago Sir John Macdonald made his will. It is not wings. When a few days ago in the expected that the will will be read midst of an angry discussion in this until after the burial, though it is apparliament the news spread in this known to contain an expressed direct

House that of a sudden his condition had become alarming the surging wave of angry discussion was at once hushed and everyone, friend and foe realized that this time for a certainty the Angel of Death had appeared and had crossed the threshold of his home. Thus we were not taken by surprise and although we were prepared for the sad event, yet it is almost impossible to convince the willing mind that it is true that Sir John Macdonald is no more—that the chair which we now see vacant shall remain for ever vacant, that the face so familiar in this Parliament for the last forty years shall be seen no more. se that of a sudden his condit ast forty years shall be seen no more and that the voice so well knows shall be heard no more, whether in emn debate or in pleasant or mirt

HIS LOSS OVERWHELMING In fact the place of Sir John A Macdonald in this country was so large and so absorbing that it is al large and so absorbing that it is a most impossible to conceive that the politics of this country, the fate of this country will continue without him. His loss overwhelms us. For my part I say with all truth his loss overwhelms me and also overwhelm this Parliament as if indeed one of nis Parliament, as if indeed one ne institutions of the land had give way. Sir John A. Macdonald no ngs to the ages, and it can aid with certainty that the caree hich has just been closed is one of he most remarkable careers of the the most remarkable careers of the entury. It would be premature a his time to attempt to divine or an icipate what will be the final judg nent of history upon him, but there were in his career and in his life fea ures so prominent and so conspicuous hat already they shine with a glory which time cannot alter. These ich time cannot alter. The tracteristics appear before the aracteristics appear before the ouse at the present time such as the ill appear to the end in history. ink it can be asserted that for the preme art of governing men Sir Joh donald was gifted as few men ny land and in any age were gifted-ifted with the most high of all qual es, qualities which would have shon any theatre and which have short and the more conspicuously the larg he theatre. The fact that he cou ongregate together elements that he sould be a sould be most heterogeneous and blend then nto one compact party and the end of his life keep them steadil under his hand is perhaps altogether unprecedented. The fact that during all these years he maintained unimpaired not only the confidence but the devotion and the ardent devotion and affection of his party is evidence that besides thos higher qualities of statesmanship twhich we were the daily witnesses, he was also endowed with this inner was also endowed with this inne subtle, indefinable characteristic soul which wins and keeps the hear of men. As to his statesmanship it of men. As to his statesmanship it is written in the history of Canada. It may be said without any exaggeration whatever that the life of Sir John Macdonald from the date he entered parliament is the history of Canada for he was connected and associated with all the events, all the facts, with igh level of intellectual con and, above all, a far-reaching visbeyond the event of the day and triend of Sir John Macdonald, that the intimacy of his domestic circle was fond of repeating that his end would be as the end of Lord Chathar that he would be carried away from the floor of Parliament to die. However, the die word has a state of the end of the floor of Parliament to die. However, the struck his vision into the future was a famous know, for we saw him at the last with enfeebled health and diedlining strength struggling on the lining strength struggling on loor of Parliament until, the hand fate upon him, he was carried to home to die, and thus to die with harmor on was probably his ambition

DEATH AND SEPARATION. Sir, death is the supreme law rm, although session after session have seen it in this Parliamen riking right and left without an rimination as to age or static the ever recurring spectacle do in any way remove the bitterne yet the ever recurring spectace do not in any way remove the bitterner of the sting. Death always carris with it an incredible sea of pain, by the one-thing sad in death is the which is involved in the word separation—separation from all we love life. This is what makes death spoignant when it strikes a man of it tellect in middle age. But when death is the natural termination of a further activation of a further strikes.

tis the natural termination of a ful-list he natural termination of a ful-life in which he who has disappeared had given the full measure of his capacity, has performed everything required from him and more the sad-mess of death is not for him who goes but for those who love him and r main. In this sense I am sure t Canadian people will extend unboun sympathy to the friends of Sir John addonald, to his sorrowing childred above all to the brave an ble woman, his companion in life schief helpmeet. Thus, Mr. Speak one after another we see those why a been instrumental in bringin s been sinstrumental in sada to its present state of develop at removed from amongstus. To see we deplore the loss of him whome all unite in saying was the fore. Those accompanying the remains of the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time does not be companying the remains of the largest procession. The feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time does not be companying the remains of the largest place in Canadian of his time does not be companying the remains of the largest place in Canadian of his time does not be companying the remains of the largest place in Canadian of his time does not be companying the remains of the great procession! It states that the largest place in Canadian of his time and who feel the largest place in Canadian of his time and who had not been as one of the object of the companying the remains of the city of his place in the feet place in the city of the largest place in the city of the companying the remains of the city of the companying the remains of the city of the ave been "instrumental in nd thinned of those upon whom they ave been in the habit of relying for uidance that a feeling of apprehension vill creep into the heart lest perhaps he institutions of Canada may be im he institutions of Canada may be im erilled. Before the grave of him who bove all was the father of Confeder tion let not grief be barren grief, bu et grief be coupled with the resolution he determination, that the work in thich Liberals and Consequentives. hich Liberals and Conservatives, in hich Brown and Macdonald united, nall not perish, but that though nited Canada may be deprived of the

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE MEMBER FOR WEST ASSINIBOIA. Mr. Davin: I think, sir, it would be unbecoming, if I may venture to ay so, that I should remain silent or occasion and that no expression ald be given of the way the North st feels at this supreme hour. For self it would be hard not to express ense of grief at such a time as this, ause it so happens that for sor ars I was brought closely into con t with him whom we mourn a is time, and I was able to see int cose features of his character which ere probably of more value to the orld than the great abilities which truck the superficial observer.
Mr. Speaker, the man whom wondern here to-day was emphatically great man. When I came to Canada a great man. When I came to Canada' irst his friends, misdoubting that they might have formed a provincial conception of Sir John Macdonald, used to come to me and ask how he would compare with the great men in England. I said he could stand up to the greatest of them, and when I knew him intimately and was brought closely in contact with him I became more and more convinced that Tai ore and more convinced that Ta om doubting whether he could stan p to the greatest of them, few cannot be a standard to the varied qualities, the exact and complete that are necessary to make stirical lander whether the transfer of the control of itical leader such as was Sir Jo official feader such as was Sir John Iacdonald. Ranging over the field distory and recalled the names of the name great man who the other day was eading in the House. You may find great power of intellect, great power of statesmanship, far-reaching views, great powers as oratory, but where will you find conjoined with all these that politeness that never fails, that lelicate consideration for the feelings of the state of the st hat even anon played like light an hade in "le bon tons ironique et la race qui rit?" Sir, the measure of his great abilitie s the difficulties that he overcame. emember when I first visited the ouildings some 20 years ago a gentle buildings some 20 years ago a gentle-man then occupying one of the highest positions in the Government said to my surprise when I admitted the build-ings were grand, "But what an ex-pense, what a waste of money!" Now we find they are hardly equal to their needs, and the fact is these very build-ings emphasize the Imperial cast of mind of the great mind who is gone. I remember on the first time I had a conversation with him some seventeen

f others, that exquisite urbanity the istinguished Sir John Macdonald

conversation with him some seventees or eighteen years ago, he drew a sketch of the British possessions confederate together, and then in his own emphatis way he said that is the time when should like to lead. In truth he was not only a Canadia In truth he was not only a Canadian statesman but an Imperial statesman, the brightset gem in the British crown was polished and set by his hand. I have read somewhere of a child who planted a tree which ultimately shaded his old age and with lews of evening water but grave. Sir John Maddage life grave.

nd a devotee, and when we think loss we mourn not merely tesman who directed the affairs e who knew him thus mourn, but that that power, which only belong to highest genius, of making men whenever saw feel the extraordinar charm of his personality. We mae build statues to him in these grounds numents will arise to him in Kir ton, but the grandest monument Sir' John Macdonald will be the lo that Canada feels it her privilege therish for so great a personality, even should we never erect a status his memory humanity will keep his memory green, for he belonged to that rare group of men who enchain the memory of mankind.

Sir, language was applied to a great scountryman of his, a great Scotch man, not a statesman, but belonging to another order of activity, which wight well be applied to the great scotch than the statesman of the statesma eight well be applied to the great atesman we mourn:

Dead heroes in marble from memory fact.
But while hearts shall weep where you ashes are laid
And earth's prouder priesthood like phartons pass by.
But thou art of the priesthood that never

The motion was agreed to. LYING IN STATE.

OTTAWA, June 9.—The body of the late Sir John Macdonald lay in state all day in the Senate chamber. The chamber were an air of mourning The brass rods and railing at each en were draped in mourning. The seat had been removed and the scarlet car pet covered over with linen. In accordance with the wishes of the family simplicity was the characteristic of these signs of sorrow. The casket was placed in the centre of the room on a rest wrapped in black cloth with black silk fringe and silk cords. At the side was a shield entwined with ensigns and bearing a portrait of the Queen A barrier draped in black run the whole length of the chamber at the opposite side of the casket. Along the barrier and along the opposite side of the chamber were arranged the scores of thoral tributtes received. Around the bier were the Conservative members et covered over with linen. In acco noral tributtes received. Around the bier were the Conservative member who will remain in turns four at a time of guard the remains of the Chieftan luring the time the body lies in state that force at the content of tationed at intervals in the chamb and through the corriders were guar om the Governor General's Footuards the Ottawa Field Battery, the rincess Louise Dragoon Guards and the 43rd Battalion.

the 43rd Battalion. The remains were removed privately om Eanschiffe this morning at 5. The rening before Rev. J. J. Bogart of Alban's Church, read the funerary rice of the Church of England, all emembers of the family being the control of the second of esent. This morning the casket wa arried from the house by six stalwar ominion police men to the hearse rawn by four black horses and take that the union of these provinces at Major Colville, military secretary, that day was premature. When, how Viscount Kileoursie. Captain Walsh, lever. Confederation had become a fact. Lieutenant-Colonel Smith and Lieusche gave the best of his mind and heart scenant-Colonel Macpherson, aide-de comake it a success. It may indeed camps; Major General Herbert and shappen, sir, when the Canadian people Captain. Streatfelle, aide-de camp, see the ranks thus gradually reduced The party proceeded to the Speaker's see the ranks thus gradually reduced The party proceeded to the Speaker's

partments, where the members of t plate ministry were waiting. Joining them Lord Stanley proceeded to the chamber where the dead statesman bar baring in his hand a magnificent wreath, which he laid on the bier. It bore a card with the words: "In Loving Memory, from Stanley of Preston, and Constance Stanley."

The body was dressed in the full uniform of an Imperial Privy Councillor. On a stand near the head were the insignia of the office. The face of the day of the country of the long ugg to the through which he had passed.

Worn and thin and bore a marked contrast to the well-known features of a fertnight since.

Scenes in the Chamber.

SCENES IN THE CHAMBER. No attempt will be made to paradhe exhibitions of grief which we e exhibitions of grief which wer tnessed in the chamber. Suc and not to be associated with name Should it be attempted, however, would be impossible to give the who story and say what associations was the back of the emotions wh prompted men and women to bow ove the casket of the dead Premier, or fall upon their knees in an agony of grief. There were old men who cam in with hearts softened by the memor of long years of loyality to the chie of long years of loyality to the chie vain whose eyes caught but one loc of that peaceful face and were blinds with a stream of tears. There we men in their prime who checked bac he sob of sorrow in their throats, be were not ashamed of the emotic which played upon their faces. At with these tears were mingled tho of thousands of tender-hearted wome ho had learned to love the big-hear lold man by sharing indirectly is triumphs and reverses, Yes, an his triumphs and reverses, Yes, and ittle children paid the same reveren und tearful respect to the great may whose true greatness they will bette understand in years to come.

A cablegram was received to-day from Mr. Loring, secretary of the Imberial Federation League, London England, asking if a subscription to monument to the memory of Sir Joh Macdonald would be accepted. Mr. C. Dickson replied that it would ¿. C. Dickson replied that it would lthough no scheme had yet bee ormulated for perpetuating hi nemory.

The Governor-General, by command if Her Majesty, the Queen, has requested Sir Casimir Gzowski, A. D. C uested Sir Casimir Gzowski, A. D. o the Queen, to represent Her Majest at Sir John Macdonald's funeral bot at Sir John Macdonald's funeral both here and at Kingston.

Judge Ross, in opening the June term of the County Council, referred to the death of the Premier as an occasion of real sadness and possibly accitical period in the history of the country and expressed sympathy with the family in their bereavement.

Six marshals have been appointed to take charge of the funeral procession. They are Lieut.-Col. Todd Governor-General's Foot Guards Lieut.-Col. Anderson, 43rd Battalion Capt. Gourdeau, Princess Louise Dragoon Guards; Capt. Bliss, Ottawa

Dragoon Guards; Capt. Bliss, Ottawa Field Battery; Chief McVeritty, city police, and Inspector O'Leary, Do-minion Police.

The work of draping the houses, ores, etc., on the line of route wa begun early yesterday and was sti In many cases arrangements we most elaborate, and the universali tanner the respect in which the tizens of Ottawa of all shades of olitics held the deceased statesman THREE GENERATIONS PRESENT. There arrived to-day to attend the uneral Mr. Otto Klotz, of Preston, a old and intimate friend of the Premier and a life long Conservat He is 76 years of age, but still hale and strong. With him are his son Mr. Otto J. Klotz, of the typographical staff of the Department of the Interior, and his grandson Julius, a young man just coming of age. So that three generations of the Klotz family will attend the funeral of the chieftain. e funeral of the chieftain. KINGSTON IN FUNERAL GARB.

Kingston, June 9.—The city has not goin to assume an aspect of mourning all public building, and on ever nsiness house where there is a flag-taff, the national colors float at half nast. At Fort Henry alone is the flag ast head, which is in pursuance of a ilitary regulation requiring the same cept in the case of a royal death. own Princess-street the aces of business are draped in fest of black bunting, giving that usugay thoroughfare an air of solem which reminds pedestrians of the na-tional sorrow and causes the merr laugh of the school children to d away on their lips and the older cit zens to assume a more aspect as they think of it. ows contain portraits of the leremier draped in black. These estantly surrounded by a throng ectators anxious for one more glim and now and again an old acquaintan perchance of Kingston's representati ipes away a tear as he turns awa

President of the Conservative Association, and Miss Macpherson, cousing the late Sir John Macdonald, droveouto Cataraqui Cemetery and selections in the Macdonald plot for the site in late Premier's body. The coffin wi be built in with solid masonry by ( Newlands, This is being done to pr ent the body being stole

THE FUNERAL IN OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, June 10.—Day had no roken over the Capital this mornin before crowds of men and women anxious to have one last look at the face of the late Premier, began gather about the doors of the building n which lay the remains of the gre Statesman, and it was not long before Statesman, and it was not long before the great space in front of the Parlia ment buildings, and the streets leading up to them, were literally a sea of humanity. At one o'clock, Governor General Stanley, accompanied by his staff, made his way up to the entrance and passed in. He was met by the ex-Ministers, who accompanied His Excellency into the chamber when reposed the remains of the late Premier. Shortly afterwards six stall Shortly afterwards six shoulder high, and, followed by to Governor-General and his staff carriit out and placed it in the hearse. This was done the great bell in tower overhead tolled, and so continued, accompanied by all of the church and other bells in the ciduring the progress of the funer. The cortege then formed and so after started on its way to St. Albarchurch. The hearse was drawn four horses. The streets through four horses. The streets throu which the procession passed we lined many deep with sorrowi men and women. Many of the sto and dwellings were draped with cra The church in which the funeral s vice was said was also draped. T funeral cortege was the longest a most imposing ever seen in this ci-and was a fitting tribute to the dea coult up anew.

If you are sick, indisposed, debil hated, weak, suffering from malarios for ther poisons, you'll find the "Genden Medical Discovery" the remedent for Infants and Children.

CASTORIA

end it as superior to any prescription me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Without injurious medication. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

GREAT-

AT GUELFH,

Wednesday & Thursday, June 24 & 25

By Public Auction.

Without

Reserve

MR. FREDERICK WM. STONE, GUELPH, ONTARIO, Having sold Four Hundred and Fifty acres (450) of his land, will sell by Public Auction, without reserve, from the Moreton Lodge Herds, 150 Pure Bred Shorthorn and Hereford Cattle. Also several well bred Agricultural and other Horses, Guelph, Ontario, Canada At the Exhibition Grounds.

TERMS. -8 months credit on approved joint notes, or 9 per cent. per annum off to Catalogues with pedigrees, railroad rates, etc. F. W. STONE, 42 Gordon Street, Guelph.

GENTLEMEN

For the finest range of fine Spring Suitings, Overcoating & Fine Pantings CALL ON R. E. NELSON.

New Spring Goods to hand, choice assortment. My Specialty $4.00 Pants. Satisfaction Assured.

R. E. NELSON, Fashionablh Clothier.

GREENE & SONS

Company, Montreal.

HATS, CAPS Furs, Etc.

1891

OSEPH D. HEFFERNAN, Auctioneer.

GENTS FURNISHINGS

Special attention is called to our Patented Fur Collar. MONTREAL

LATEST STYLES

- Do	from Stomach, uffer from suf	fer wounds	- you suff	be They Bonels Do hong Do 1 668,	of This	he disease Kidi	er from stomach.  er from stomach.  ne I from stomach.  ne I from stomach.  nor Gout? Boils, them and be here  nor Gout? Boils, the man and be here  nor Gout & Gout	Olli every part of ri	ch
Try then atish	Disease / Dille	eir use in dies, de succes	to.
Ri from	or result of the	entin never NAT'S Estatish	T.
Inn	This is the They boo	the Label on the Boxes and Potential
111	Purchasers should look to If the address is not 533, OXFORD S.	the Label on the Boxes and Poter REET, LONDON, they are spur	s,

Arcade Grocery STRAWBERRIES

SPECIAL BARCAINS

Read Our List

ng Soda, 5c. h; Washing Soda, 2 h for aking Powder at 20c. th can, usual pri

Good Goods at Bottom Price ANDREW DAVEY & SON

NO SLOP WORK. NO CREDIT. the very Best Workmanship, the l BORSH.

First Canadian of the

AT BUCKLE'S Bakery&FruitStore QUEBEC STREET.

TURNIP SEED All the leading varieties, AWAY DOWN IN PRICE. Also Rape Seed, Hungarian, Millet. Fodder Corn, Gar-den Corn, Beans, etc., at DUDGEON'S SEED STORE Cor. Wyndham St. & Market Sq.

Wellington County Council. THE WARDEN AND CLERK ressed to the Warden, Oustic P. O., and the Clerk, Fergus P.O.

CUREYOURSELF WEAKNESS

JOHN BEATTIE, orgus, February, 1890. Co. Clerk

RYDEN.—At Rockwood, on the 7th of June the wife of Dr. Dryden, of a son.

ABSON-McLaren.—On the 4th inst. at the residence of the bride's father, 79 Liverspool Street, by the Rev. B. B. Williams, Joseph Noy Babson to Fanny E. eldest daughter of W. McLaren, merchant.

LARK—STEWART.—On Wednesday, Jame 3rd, at the residence of the bride's father, Woolwich Street, by Rev. Thos. Wardrope, D.D., W. A. Clark to Minerva M., daughter of R. W. Stewart, of this city.

RLEY.—In Guelph, on June 8th, Catherine, beloved wife of John Hurley, aged 39 yrs. HARIO.—At Guelph, on the 10th inst., Michael Andrew, only son of W. J. and M. E. Schario, aged 2 months and 4 days.

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE.

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO. CAPITAL (PAID UP) MILLION DOLLARS, - $6,000,000. ST - - - - - - $900,000. B. E. WALKER, General Manager.

GUELPH BRANCH GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED. ARMERS' NOTES DISCOUNTED RAFTS ISSUED PAYABLE AT ALL POINTS IN NADA, AND THE PRINCIPAL CITIES IN THE UNITED TES, GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, BERMUDA, &C.

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT. CURRENT RATES OF INTEREST ALLOWED terest added to the principal at the end of May and November in each year.

ocial Attention given to Collection of Commercial Paper and

B. ROSS McCONKEY, Manager

Hay
Straw
Wood per cord
Eggs per doz
Butter dairy packed Sutter rolls
These pples per bag GALT

ELORA ELORA, June 10—Flour. No. 1 Super, $2.50 to 250; Fall Wheat, $1.05 to $1.05; Spring Wheat 1.00 to $1.00; Barley. $65 to $480; Peas, 70c to $2.00 ts. $60; Barley. $65 to $480; Peas, 70c to $5.01; Beef, $6.00 to $8.00; Mutton, $6.00 to $6.00; Pork, $5.50 to $60; Hides, $3.00 to $4.00; heepskins, 50c to $1.01; Wool, 20c to 20c; Buter, 12c to 12c; Eggs, 16c to 10c; Cheese, 14c to 5c; Hay, $8.00 to $8.01; Potatoes 60c to $0.60c FERGUS. FERGUS.

FERGUS, June 10—Flour, No. 1 Super, $2.25 to 185; Fall Wheat, $1.00 to $1.05; Spring Wheat 195 to $1.00; Barley, 48c to 55c; Peas, 68c to 5.00; Bers, 44c to 45c; Cattle (live weight), $4.00; $5.00; Beef, $7.00 to $8.00; Mutton, $7.00 to 0; Pork, $5.00 to $5.50; Hides, $4.00 to $5.00, 160 pskins, 80c to $1.25; Wool, 185 to 20c; Button, 12c to 13c; Eggs, 10c to 14c; Cheese, 9c to c; Hay $7.5) to $8.00. Potatoes 60c to 70c. HARRISTON.

CLIFFORD.

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO.

Capital (paid up), - $1,500,000 Reserve Fund, - $1,300,000 general banking business tran-Deposits received in Savings Bank partment, and Interest allowed 4 per cent. per annum from te of deposit to date of withdrawal,

A. A. FITZGERALD,
Agent at Guelph WANTED, SPRAGGE WANTS TO PUR-CHASE a Good Horse for his furniture wi

NOTICE. WE HAVE DISPOSED OF OUR holesalé and Retail Cigar and To-iness to D. L. SCHULTZ & Co., and cit for them the patronage and ir customers and friends so liber-wed upon us in the past. ur customers and friends so liber wed upon us in the past J. BERNHARDT & CO. D. L. SCHULTZ & CO., de and Retail Dealers in Cigars s, Pipes and Tobacconists' Supplies apporters. The most complete and jock in the city. All leading brands ars, Tobaccos, etc., etc., constantly d. Our whole ole department will associal attention, and we are presented to the country dealers the lenders for Supplies for 1892

TENDERS WILL BE RECEIVED up to June 30th, at the Treasurer's fice, Guelph, for the following gaol supnd, Meat, Groceries, Coal and Wood Wood to be supplied in 1892; coal to be de-ivered at Guelph, Arthur and Fergus. Also ainting Court House and other rooms. For urther particulars apply to the County

OT JOHN R. WISSLER,
Chairman County Property Com.
JOHN McGOWAN,
Chairman House of Industry $5.00 REWARD!

OST OR STOLEN ON OR ABOUT May 25th—a large white Forhound, tan colored ears, and a large dark spot is back extending down his sides. The vereward will be paid for any informatebat will lead to his recovery, and any that will lead to his recovery, and any

Dr. MacKinnon. OFFICE AND RESIDENCE, OP-MARRIAGE LICENSES,

HUGH BLACK, Rockwood

GIRLS WANTED

AT THE SHIRT FACTORY.

WILLIAM .GREENE & ROME CO GUELPH.