The call of the House moved for by Mr. Baldwin was brought on, when all but six members answered to their names...

The second reading of the Representation Bill was moved for by Mr. Lafontaine. After some debate, Mr. Henry John Boulton moved an amendment that the bill should be read that day six months, the house being of opinion that the representation should be increased...

Mr. Henry John Boulton's amendment was negatived 51 to 19, and Mr. W. H. Boulton's by 61 to 10, and the original motion for the second reading of the bill was put, when there were for the motion, 51 against it, 21. Our readers will remember that this bill required under the provisions of the Union Act, two-thirds of the 84 members of the House to give it effect...

Accounts from the Southern ports of the United States, says the New York Commercial Advertiser, are very discouraging. There are more than one hundred and thirty ships in the port of New Orleans unemployed, and without reasonable prospect of employment at remunerating rates...

Coroner's Inquest.—An inquest was held here by Dr. Wallace, on Saturday morning last, on view of the dead body of Edward Matthews, Esq., Dundas Street. The body was found lying on the floor, beside a pool of blood which had issued from a gun shot wound, the anterior elevated edge of which was situated immediately behind the left angle of the lower jaw. The wound had involved the destruction of the left carotid artery. The body had a double-barrelled gun in the left hand and the ramrod clenched in the right. Mr. Matthews had been indisposed for the previous week, with a bilious attack in combination with mumps. The jury, taking all these circumstances into consideration, together with the fact that Mr. Matthews had been subject to fits of melancholy, gave a verdict of "self destruction, while under a fit of temporary insanity."

PLANK ROADS—How they pay across the line.—For the information of our Canadian readers, we will mention a fact respecting plank roads, which has not come to our knowledge, and we trust it will have the effect which we intended by giving it publicity. A plank road was completed last fall from Ogdensburgh to Heuvelton, a distance of seven miles. This road cost one thousand dollars per mile, or $7000 for the whole, including toll-houses, gates, &c. A gentleman of Prescott informs us that he subscribed for $700 worth of its stock. The road has been open to the public six months, and a few days ago he received seventy dollars in cash, as his first half-yearly dividend, or 10 per cent, and a notification that a bonus of six per cent was retained in the hands of the directors for contingencies—making a total of thirty-two per cent per annum! And this is not by any means the greatest thoroughfare leading into Ogdensburgh.—Prescott Telegraph.

Sheridan was very... Tom should marry a... Calender had won his son's heart. One day he requested Tom to walk with him, and soon entered on the subject of his marriage, and pointed out to him in glowing colours the advantages of so brilliant an alliance. Tom listened with the utmost patience, and then despatched on the perfection of the woman who proved the pride and solace of his declining years. Sheridan grew warm, and explaining on the folly of his son, at length exclaimed, "Tom if you marry Caroline Calender, I'll cut you off with a shilling!" Tom could not resist the opportunity of replying, and looking archly at his father, said, "Then air, you must borrow it!"

EXTENSIVE FORGERY.—One of the wealthiest Lancashire and Yorkshire manufacturers, Mr. Threlfall, has been arrested on a charge of forging bills to the extent of £40,000. £12,000 had been discounted when he was taken, but the money was recovered. It is thought he would have left in the Europa.
