

Just what I've been looking for

"BEAVER FLOUR"

makes ideal bread and pastry, because it is a perfect blend of Manitoba Spring wheat and Ontario Fall wheat. You don't need to keep two kinds of flour for bread and pastry. Beaver Flour makes both—a pure, white, nourishing, light loaf that "stands up" in the oven, and pastry that is crisp and appetizing. It is more economical than other flours, and appeals to all thinking women.

Order it to-day from your grocer. DEALERS—Write for prices on all Feeds, Coarse Grains and Cereals. 115 THE T. B. TAYLOR CO., LIMITED, CATHAM, Ont.

"Tell Him I Loathe Him."

CHAPTER I.

LOYD-MOSTYN'S THREAT.

"Not until you have heard me to the end!" "I will hear nothing further. Once more I command you to take your hand from the bridle of my horse." "And once more I answer you that you shall see how little the commands of Miss Beaufort have power to affect me," he returned insolently. "You shall remain here until I am ready to have you return!" She did not speak again. All her pride was in arms. All the haughtiness of her nature was in revolt. For the first time in her life she had been subject to insult. From infancy her will had been law, and unable to brook insolence such as that, she forgot for the moment who he was and the dignity she owed herself. She lifted the riding whip she carried and brought it down sharply across his face.

For some time he scarcely realized what had occurred; then he lifted his hand, from which he had drawn the glove, and drew it across the place that stood out like a heavy cord.

His eyes were blazing. "You cursed fiend!" he ejaculated; "You shall pay for this if I sell my soul to Satan for it. You have made an enemy that knows how to settle scores. This scar is the first that has ever been placed upon my honor. My revenge will be to mark yours. I will lower that pride. You have only yourself to thank, Miss Beaufort, of Beaufort Park. You shall be an example to rising generations. I will make you the laughingstock of America, where you are ruling as queen. Oh, God! What a revenge I shall have!" But as the duchess rode onward she felt no fear, but only the sting which her pride had received.

CHAPTER II.

The Man Without a Friend.

LOYD MOSTYN turned the head of his horse in the opposite direction from the one that his cousin had taken, and giving the animal a terrible cut with his whip, dashed away like the wind.

Notwithstanding the apparent suddenness of his resolve, he seemed already to have determined upon his course of action, for there was not the slightest hesitation evidenced in his manner. He rode rapidly, and in a direction that he seemed to know.

When he again halted, it was in front of a small but scrupulously neat dwelling, surrounded by a grove of magnificent old trees.

Loyd-Mostyn dismounted, throwing the bridle over a rail in the wicket fence that encircled the small plot of ground. A sarcastic smile curved the corners of the aristocratic mouth as he glanced about at the evidences of poverty which the most artistic care could not conceal.

Knocking the dust from his riding breeches with his whip, he made his way to the door of the little house and knocked, there being no such pretensions as a bell. The summons was answered by a little weazen-faced, dried-up, parchment-skinned woman, who in a voice so thin that it resembled that of one of the witches in "Macbeth," asked:

"Did you knock, sir? I am so deaf that I can hardly hear."

"Yes, madam," returned Loyd-Mostyn, taking the cue to speak loud.

"Is Mr. Childes at home?"

"Do you mean Erle?"

"Yes, madam."

"I think so. Walk in, sir!"

Loyd-Mostyn did as he was bidden, entering a room that served at once as a sleeping and dining room,

Away Goes All Stomach Trouble.

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia five minutes later.

If you had some Littlepain handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Paper's Digestin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching or undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Paper's Digestin is certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disturbance.

Northern Bay Church.

Three carpenters are now at work on the interior of the new church at Northern Bay and are doing good work. The ceiling will be painted and finished in light California pine. This church is being finished by Rev. Fr. Lynch, the indefatigable priest of Northern Bay, whose energy and zeal is as great as it was 20 years ago.

Carterhall, Nfld. Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Dear Sirs—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by mosquitoes, so badly that I thought I would be obliged for a couple of weeks to be advised to try your Liniment to relieve the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is also a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

Yours truly, W. A. V. R.

Leaves This Evening.

Inspector General Sullivan, accompanied by this evening's express for a two month holiday in Canada and the United States. Mr. Sullivan, who is a hard worker, well deserves this vacation, and we hope to see him return with his health fully restored. Supt. Grimes, who during Mr. Sullivan's illness looked after the police department in a highly creditable manner, will again do so during the Inspector General's absence. He is a man in whom Mr. Sullivan places the fullest confidence and is an efficient and hard working officer.

Here and There.

The schr. Carl E. Richard sailed to day for Mulgrave and will make three trips more to this port before finishing the season's shipments.

MEN FOR RAILWAY.

About 36 men from Trepassay and other parts of the Southern Shore arrived here by the Portia and will go to work on the Bonavista branch railway.

INTERRED YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the little girl Hazel Moore who died as the result of a burning interred yesterday afternoon in the General Protestant Cemetery. The coffin containing the remains was covered with floral tributes from friends of the child's parents.

GOES TO BONNE BAY.

Constable Walters of the Eastern Station has been transferred to Bonne Bay and will leave for there with his wife by the Portia. Walters is a fine officer and is well fitted to perform the duties of this important station. Constable Anthony, who was formerly there is now in the Northwest of Canada and doing well.

SOUTHERN SHORE SURVEY.

Those surveyors working along the Southern Shore on the new railway line reached a point near the Mulcahy Hotel, over 18 miles from the city. They have the good luck to find this place and are now pushing ahead. It is hoped that by the time the frost sets in over half the survey will have been done.

A BIG PARADE.

The next church parade of the C.C.C. will likely be the largest in the history of the Corps. The new Promotion Company will be in line with the battalion and between 500 and 600 will take part in the parade. The Promotion Company's new uniforms look very neat. They have a corps of buglers and drummers and will show to advantage when they appear on parade.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Toronto, Canada.—"I shall endeavor to describe to you how I felt before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I scarcely knew what it was to be well. I had awful bearing-down pains and usually before my monthly periods I suffered terribly and had to go to bed. I was not able to walk across the floor the pain was so bad. I doctored for a long time, but the doctor's treatment did not do me any good. I gave up all hopes of ever being well again until one day my husband saw the Compound advertised in the paper. He decided to get me a bottle, and I am thankful he did. I had not taken one bottle before I began to feel better, and I kept on taking it until now I am a different woman. It also helped me during maternity and childbirth. I can thoroughly recommend your Vegetable Compound to any woman who is afflicted with female troubles."—Mrs. J. M. TWEEDALE, 188 Nassau St., Toronto, Canada.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

Suffered Terrible Pains from His Kidneys.

Perhaps no other organs work harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body, and most people are troubled with some kind of kidney complaint, but do not suspect it.

There is no way of getting the kidney poisons out of the system except through the kidneys, and no medicine so effective in taking them out as Dr. Bovei's Herb Tablets.

They help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages.

Mr. C. Jordan of Port Sandfield, writes as follows:

Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Bovei's Herb Tablets. I suffered terribly from kidney disease for three years, which trouble I contracted from exposure while working at my trade which is carpentering. I was advised to try your medicine. I am thankful to say that I am now completely cured, and I can truly recommend this medicine to all sufferers from this painful disease.

Thankfully yours, C. JORDAN.
