

Aching Muscles and After Effects of Grippe

Zam-Buk Gives Ease.

As soon as you feel any deep-seated pain in the joints, back, wrists, or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand, and rub it well in. The penetrating power of this "em-bracing-balm" is exceedingly great, and, once having reached the seat of the pain, it removes it speedily. It also ends the stiffness, which is so unpleasant.

Mrs. Francis Wyatt, of 25 Guy Avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely with rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pain, driving them out completely, and I am now quite cured."

This case, and scores of similar cases reported to us, is proof that Zam-Buk's penetrating and healing power is very great. In addition to its use as an embrocation, it is a sure cure for skin diseases, such as eczema, ringworm, ulcers, blood-poisoning, scaly sores, etc., and is the finest known "first aid." For piles, it is a specific. Gives certain ease. All druggists and stores, at 50 cents box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld., for price.

Mothers should also try Zam-Buk Soap for baby's bath and for the rashes, eruptions, pimples, etc., so common amongst children at this season. Shampooing with Zam-Buk Soap beautifies and strengthens the hair.

Very Enjoyable Time.

Last night at their rooms on Charlton Street the members of the City Band and their friends met and had a most enjoyable supper and concert. It was the first session of the kind which the members had, and the lady friends of the members largely contributed to its success. They served the tables, decorated the rooms and in many other ways helped the members to enjoy themselves. The ladies well deserved the vote of thanks tendered them. After the supper and concert those present held a dance, which did not conclude until this morning. The following programme was rendered: March, Garry Owen; waltz, Strawberry Blonde; song, Mr. Thos. Potties; cornet duet, Mr. Robt. Avery and Mr. Lionel Norman; march, Come Back to Prim; waltz, Twilight Echoes; song, Mr. T. Potties; waltz, Thine Alone; march, Tom Tough; waltz, Killarney; God Save the King.

Mr. Williams Protests.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Permit me to contradict a statement in the Evening Telegram of Tuesday under the heading of "Row in Council," when you say that I called on Mr. Mulvey, re the erection of the shed on Quidi Vidi Road. I may say that I did not call on Mr. Mulvey, and I fail to see what benefit would be derived by calling on such a self-advertised gentleman as Mr. Mulvey.

Further, I may say that I most strongly protest at the erection of a small shed in this locality, where there are so many houses and it being so close to the road side, with only a few feet from the oil store and a few yards from the Fever Hospital. What guarantee have we that the inmates like those of the Fever Hospital or the Lunatic Asylum, won't get out when they please, although Mr. Kennedy informs me that there will be a strict guard from the police and no person will be allowed near the place? I would offer to suggest that Quidi Vidi Road be closed as the shed is only 20 feet from the roadside. Thanking you for space, I remain,

Yours truly,

A. G. WILLIAMS.

Profession at St. Patrick's Convent, Riverhead.

Yesterday, Wednesday, at St. Patrick's Convent, Riverhead, the beautiful and solemn ceremony of profession took place, the young sister who made her vows being Sister M. Rose Reddy, of Fernside. The ceremony commenced at 8.30 o'clock. His Grace Archbishop Howley, presiding, being assisted by Rev. F. McDermott. His Grace addressed the Novice Elect in his usual eloquent and graceful style, dwelling on the dignity and seriousness of the step she was about to take in pronouncing those three vows. All present were deeply impressed by the vivid and instructive manner in which the Archbishop explained the self-sacrificing of the Religious state and the daily immolation that life entails. After the sermon Mass was celebrated by His Grace, being assisted throughout by Rev. Frs. McDermott and Pippy; there were also present Rev. Frs. Gough and Kelly. The singing of the Mass was beautifully rendered by some of the Convent pupils—the principals being—Misses B. Murphy, L. O'Toole, P. O'Neill, H. Hickey, N. Jackman and N. Duchemin. The Mass being finished His Grace addressed the usual questions to the Novice, after which he bestowed on her the Black Veil and Silver Ring emblematic of her Holy Epousals. The Archbishop, clergy and friends of the newly-professed were then sumptuously entertained by the Rev. Mother and good Sisters of St. Patrick's. We wish Sister M. Rose many years of happiness in her religious life.—Com.

DIED AT OPORTO.—Messrs. Baine Johnston & Co. were advised by the Carthaginian's mail of the death at Oporto recently of Capt. G. C. Fox, captain of the English sloop, A. M. Fox. He was well liked and known in St. John's, having come here annually for several years.

Marshall Brothers

Tim Shannahan on the Mix-Up in the Council.

"This town is becoming too funny to live in," says Delaney. "There's more free fun distributed in this man's town than in any other quarter of the globe."

Delaney thinks that the public are not treating the Council square. "It's like a young fellow, he says, who falls out with another young fellow over bawling marbles. They kick up a great fuss, and then their mothers arrive on the scene and they get a-growing at each other. By and by the brothers of the two bawlers arrive and start in to peel off their jackets, and in less than no time the whole neighborhood is in a hellaboo."

"This is the same with the Council, says Delaney. A big fuss is kicked up over nothing. The whole town is wagging tongues, but no one is making an effort to stop the fiasco. He says, let the whole thing be forgotten, let the race start all over again, yet by-gones be by-gones, and let those who have made mistakes benefit by them and try to do better in future. Import a cargo or two of common sense and dole it out free to those who need it, and let us all take a tumble and do our best to assist in untangling the knot that keeps the cable from running along smoothly."

Tucker says "his no trouble to sit in a nice cushion seat on a pivety chair and write editorials denouncing the actions of the Council, but that kind of a game only tends to make the knot more difficult to clear. Councilors have to talk about goats, porches and gutters. That's a part of their work. They can't discuss the Temperance Bill, the Cold Storage business, or orate on coal areas. It may appear silly to lose an evening over the goat nuisance or the price paid for sharpening blunt picks, but after all is said and done, 'tis a part of the Councilors' business to talk about such things, and we should not try to appear smart in making little of such business. 'Tis not much trouble to keep the under dog down, and it calls for no great brilliancy to be able to induce people to join with you in balaragging the Council. But what is needed more just now is the strong man who will come to the rescue and clear up the atmosphere, for after all we are all living in this town, and we should do our best to make it as pleasant for one another as possible. There's nothing to be gained by looking at a big fire-burning down the town, if we don't try and get the hose on it; and there's nothing to be gained by trying to make little of the Council if we don't adopt some means of making it better. Fun and ridicule is all right in its place, but we can overstep the mark by trying to be too funny in a matter that calls for serious thinking and prompt action."

Spicy reading of the Council meetings may induce a better appetite for our breakfast, but the public are being overworked and are already sick and tired of the rehash, and want a change in the programme.

Interesting Debate.

Last night the members of the C. E. T. S. listened to an interesting debate in their rooms, the subject for discussion being: "Is the Society doing its best to encourage Young Men?" Those who espoused the affirmative side of the question were Messrs. A. Rees, R. G. McDonald and L. Cullen, and for the negative Messrs. R. Clarke, Lauder and B. Harris. Several good speeches were listened to, and on the matter being put to a vote the negative side won.

Decree of Separation.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LISBON To-Day.
The Cabinet concluded a decree of separation regarding the Church and State. It concedes entire liberty to all creeds, the Catholic creed ceasing to be the State religion from the date of its promulgation. Henceforth all churches will be maintained by the faithful. Beneficed clergy will continue to receive stipends until July 1st, after which they will be paid pensions. The property necessary for the celebration of public worship will be ceded to the clergy free of cost. British and other foreign seminaries will be allowed to remain, but those connected with the seminaries will not be allowed in the streets in clerical garb. As the Catholic religion will no longer be the State religion, priests may marry so far as the Portuguese law is concerned, and in case of death the pensions will revert to parents, or widows and children.

School Convention at Grand Bank.

A convention of teachers of Grand Bank and district was recently held in the fine new Methodist School there, where Mr. Nichols lectured to them on the new drawing course laid down by the C. H. E. The convention occupied three whole days, and Mr. Nichols afterward gave two more days organizing classes in every department of the schools on the new system. The convention was a great success, and the teachers, members of the School Board and parents present, all alike were pleased with the instructive lectures. At the close a very cordial vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer, and Dr. MacDonald in seconding the motion of Mr. Moran (Principal), spoke at some length on the necessity and benefit of drawing being taught our children. Drawing was necessary in every walk of life. It was easy to see that Prof. Nichols was an expert whose whole soul was in that work. The doctor firmly believed the new course to be a sound one. It would be money well spent, Rev. E. Moore, Chairman of the meeting, and of the School Board, spoke of the great pleasure and profit with which he had listened throughout the lectures. They had been a treat to all.

Damaged by Storm.

The wind blew with hurricane force last night and this morning from the N.E. at Torbay, Flatrock, Outer Cove and Pouch Cove and other places north of St. John's. It was accompanied by heavy snow and sleet and the highest sea ran on the shore for many years. At Torbay, houses owned by Messrs. John and L. Thorn, the Messrs. Martin and other people on the north side were completely swept away and much other damage wrought and the same applies to the other places mentioned. Fences were blown down, chimneys and roofs damaged and general havoc wrought.

Causes Damage.

At nearly all the city wharves this morning and last night a big undertow ran, and to save vessels from being damaged they had to be given extra moorings. The s.s. Spica at Bowring's burst her after spring and others had to be bent to prevent her tearing up the premises. The same applied to the Hawk and Lady Napier moored there. The Adventure burst some of her lines and had to be hauled out into the stream from A. J. Harvey & Co's. pier, and the schr. X 10 U 8 at Job's smashed her rails, bulwarks, etc., and was well secured after much difficulty. A big sea is running outside the port and is breaking across the Narrows.

The storm of N. N. E. wind kicked up a wild sea at Petty Harbor last night, and when the tide was at its height the sea swept away half the stages and damaged the rest very badly. Hundreds of dollars will be required to repair the havoc to the stages and flukes. The only property left intact is Monroe & Co's.

Painful Accident.

While Capt. Marshall of the Lady Napier was this forenoon putting a "service" on the lines which moored the Lady Napier at Bowring's wharf, the ship made a sudden lurch in the undertow, the line he was working at became suddenly taut, and his fingers were caught between it and the hawse checks. He narrowly escaped losing his hand, and as a matter of fact one of the fingers was almost completely severed, the upper joint being left in his glove. The captain had to go to Dr. Rendell for treatment.

The big new ore boat Tellus, built for the N. S. S. Co. to run in the ore trade, arrived at Bell Island yesterday morning from Philadelphia and sailed last evening for the same port with 12,430 tons iron ore, which is about double the cargo that the largest of the boats running last year could carry.
