On Borrowing.

By GEORGE FITCH.
 Author of "At Good Old Sivash."

Borrowing is a talent, a vice, a virtue, a dissipation and a very pleasant help in time of trouble.

Borrowing is not all of these things to the same man, however. There are as many kinds of borrowing as there are many ways of telling a girl that she is nine up and eight to play with you.

Some men borrow money as they would a lawn-mower, an umbrella, a street car ticket or a tooth brush. It is easier to borrow money than it is to smile around and stake a claim on a good job. These men generally begin life with a large circle of friends and end with a few acquaintances who are the reason of rheumatism or spring-hair are unable to be elsewhere in a great hurry.

Some men borrow money because they have lost their and must finance a new start. Getting a new start on a nice large wad of borrowed money is a nice diversion of labor. The borrower does the working and the borrower does the worrying.

Some men borrow money because they have to have it. There is a more legitimate object of pity than the man who tries to borrow money because he needs it. John D. Rockefeller who has several millions full of hard earnings, could go out at any time and borrow a wagon load of Richfield gas because he doesn't need them. But when a man has to have $500 by to-morrow when he discovers that depression hangs over the land that stocks are depressed, the future is black, the word currency has been torn out of the dictionary and that all his friends have unfortunately disposed of their surplus wealth only the day before.

Some men borrow money in order to set it to work. They are a regular employment bureau. They take the dollar which has lain for years in the stocking of its secretive owner and set it to work piling up interest. They rifle the banks to build railroads and empty the corn cribs of the nation in order to erect new factories.

Many a man has started in life with nothing but a genius for borrowing, some other man's money and returned to him two-fold in the course of time. If it were not for these ready and talented borrowers, America would still be struggling along on a cash basis and the projected railroad from New York to Chicago would now be desiring Cleveland, Ohio, with good stage connections the rest of the way.

Mr. James Wants an Investigation.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The Fishermen's Advocate of date Nov. 29th, in an editorial, charges that during the recent election, at a settlement in Burin District, "a clergyman was heard to state that Orangeism was a synonymous term for Anarchy and Piracy."

If this is so, and there is no reason whatever to doubt it, as the statement is very plain, and not filled in any way, it is the immediate duty of the Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Orange Lodge of Newfoundland to investigate, and have the charge brought home to the man of God, who so criminally and ignorantly libelled the Orange Association and no matter what his denomination to take prompt action against him in the courts.

A little while ago, a tremendous furor was created when an alleged oath of the Knights of Columbus was circulated, but when the Orange Association is calumniated it appears to be nobody's business to probe the matter, and so a base libel is permitted to gain currency and credence among people who do not know any better.

The Provincial Grand Orange Lodge will hold its annual session at Burin during the month of February, 1914, and will be, consequently, right on the spot where no difficulty should be experienced in tracing the enunciator of such an uncalced for and mendacious expression, and, if not done before, compelling him either with or without process of law to publicly retract and apologize.

Yours truly,
 C. T. JAMES.
 Channel, Dec. 3, 1913.

Thick, Glossy Hair No More Dandruff

Girls! Beautify your hair! Make it soft, fluffy and luxuriant—Try the moist cloth.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Kiev Fails to Secure Loan.

Odesa, Nov. 29.—The mayor of Kiev, with two members of the Kiev municipality, has returned from London and announces the failure of his attempt to float a municipal loan of £1,575,000 in London. The mayor informed the representatives of the Kievstoe Myssl that his mission failed owing to the evil repite into which Kiev has fallen on account of the trial of the Belifiss "ritual murder" charges.

'Cascarets' Relieve Sick, Sour Stomach

Move acids, gases and clogged-up waste from Stomach, Liver, Bowels—Cure Indigestion.

Get a 10-cent box now. That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach; the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Hymenal.

On Dec. 1st, at St. Jones Without, T.B., a very pretty wedding took place, when Mr. John Green, jr., son of Mr. Charles Green, of that place, was united in holy matrimony to Mary Jane Downey, of that place, but who for a few months had been residing in St. John's. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Richards, Methodist Minister, of the Random South Circuit. Mr. Leonard Green was groom's best man, and Miss Minnie Green, assisted the bride. The wedding was kept up in the home of the groom, where the good friends of St. Jones Without, met for a sumptuous repast. Mr. and Mrs. Green have the hearty wishes of all for many years of happy wedded life.

Desperado's last Stand in Mine

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 1.—Snudges were lighted early to-day in Utah Apex Mine where Ralph Lopez, desperado, is making his last stand. With all the exits to the mine except that of the Andy Tunnel bratticed and sealed with mud, and with poisonous gas floating back into the depths of the workings, it was expected that the fugitive would make a break for liberty to-day.

A large amount of dynamite is stored in the mine, and knowing Lopez could easily blow out one of the bulkheads, the seven sheriffs early to-day stationed a dozen deputies at each of the fifteen tunnel mouths with orders to shoot him on sight.

The ten thousand inhabitants of this canyon-walled mining town, deep in drifts of snow, were waiting in tense excitement for the result of the man hunt that already has cost six lives.

Took Refuge in Mine. On November 21 Lopez killed a Mexican miner and later in the day killed the chief of police, and two detectives who pursued him. After a chase through several counties he backtracked to Bingham and took refuge in the mine, where he killed two more deputies last Saturday.

Healthy and Unheal by Lighting

Gas, it may be said, vitiates the atmosphere. True. But it also helps to purify it. Its purifying power is greater than its vitiating power. Electricity does not viliate, nor does it purify. Hear what three eminent men have said:—

Much evidence has lately been adduced to show that gas is more useful than the electric light in promoting efficient ventilation of air. It is for this reason, amongst other reasons, that gas is being frequently substituted for the electric light. The best example is, perhaps, the Society of Medical Officers of Health, which has recently installed gas on its premises, after experience with the electric light.—Dr. Jamieson B. Hurry.

He would merely add that no member who had experience of their meeting room under the old conditions could deny the improvement that had taken place since gas had been substituted for the electric light and the new system of heating and ventilation had been installed.—Dr. Reginald Dudson, before the Society of Medical Officers of Health.

I have in my mind's eye, at the moment, a hall which, in the old days, was lighted by gas, and in which a large audience could, with comfort, sit through an hour's lecture, or with pleasure through a three hours' dinner, but which with the march of civilization, had its illumination changed from gas to electricity, the latter being employed with all the latest refinements to effect the lighting under the best conditions, with the result that any large gathering within its walls leads to a state little short of asphyxiation.—Vivian B. Lewes, Professor of Chemistry at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich.—nov8,tf

Eat Meal for 12 on Wager; Dying.

Boulder, Dec. 2.—As a result of attempting to win a ten dollar wager by devouring a dinner sufficiently large to feed a family of twelve, J. T. Harris lies at his home in a semi-conscious condition. The attending physician declares it will take twenty four hours to determine the outcome of Mr. Harris's illness.

With L. N. Ferguson, Mr. Harris last Monday made a ten dollar wager that he could eat, at a sitting of two and a half hours one 15-pound turkey with oyster dressing, three loaves of bread, six large sweet potatoes, six cups of coffee, two bunches of celery, four dishes of cranberry sauce, one glass of mint jelly, six bananas with cream, one pound of butter, one order of squash, two mince pies and two dishes of plum pudding with brandy sauce.

Mr. Harris began his meal at six o'clock last evening and had successfully reached the mince pies when he collapsed and fell to the floor in a faint.

Girl's Nerves Fully Restored

Was Never Able to Obtain Lasting Benefit Until Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Was Used. Too many girls grow up with weak, anaemic bodies and exhausted nervous systems. Indoor life and too much application in school are sometimes the cause. The blood needs enriching and the nerves need strengthening by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This food cure is doing wonders for many thousands of girls whose parents had almost despaired of their ever developing into strong, healthy women.

Mrs. J. Bagnall, 295 Woodville avenue, Toronto, writes: "My daughter suffered from nervousness since childhood, and any medicine she tried did not do any lasting good. We read in the papers about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and my daughter used it with wonderful results. This treatment has built up her system and so strengthened the nerves that she feels like another girl." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
