

Evening Telegram

C. T. JAMES, - - - - Editor

Saturday, July 3, 1920.

Our Immortals.

"The bugle echoes shrill and sweet But not of war it rings to-day.

Who went through fire and death to At last the accolade of God.

"In shining rank on rank arrayed
They march, the legions of t
Lord;
He is their Captain unafraid, colors typify the soul of the Regiment. They are its chief The Prince of Peace brought a sword." care. Their protection may demand the life of every officer and private, but those lives will "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori," (It is sweet and be freely and willingly given to save them from capture. It is a glorious to die for one's country) runs the line of the Latin poet tradition of the British Army dedicated to those who fell in that no man shall forsake the battle, fighting for all that they guns or the colors, and on many held dear, and may we not apply a field has this tradition been that declaration to the memor- bravely borne out. There is no ies of those who died in Flan- honor rendered unto men, no ders Fields, while upholding matter what their rank in the the honor of the Empire and of army, so high as that given the their native land, the name of colors. They represent all that which arouses a thrill in the is grand and glorious in regihearts of Newfoundlanders whether at home or abroad. Tomorrow may rightly be called Memorial Day. It is the day set apart in this Dominion in hearts of Newfoundlanders whe- mental annals. They are, in memory and in honor of those preciate the special place, the who fell in the cause of humanexalted station, of the Regimenity's freedom, when Hunnish tal and King's Colors, but the principles and Hunnish kultur soldiers knows all that they threatened to overcome the world, but was checked, held stand for and highly prize that knowledge. Citizens to-morrow back and finally destroyed by the heroism of those who, know- are requested to pay the Colors of the Royal Newfoundland ingly, stepped into the breach Regiment all honor and respect. and gave their lives for mankind. "Greater love hath no All will do this, for we have come to regard the flag of man than this," may well be written as an epitaph on the "Ours" as the living, breathing spirit of the regiment. Hands crosses which mark the graves should go up to the salute as we of the legions of the dead who, while living, thought it a sweet pass them, for they are emand pleasant thing to die for blematical of the cause in which country. In preserving their so many of Terra Nova's loyal sons laid down their lives and memories we are testifying to the high regard which they held are now far from home-enin our esteem. Nay more, we camped with are perpetuating for all time an THE BIVOUAC OF THE DEAD honor which is the only tribute "The muffled drum's sad roll has been the soldier's last tattoo;

No more on life's parade shall meet.
That brave and fallen few. we can offer on the altar of their sacrifice. They died that humanity might be free, and in their dying left us an heritage, an heritage which we will do The bivouac of the dead. well not to neglect. That heri-No rumor of the foe's advance No rumor of the foe's advance

Now swells upon the wind;

No troubled thought at midnight

haunts

Of loved ones left behind;

No vision of the morrow's strife

The warrior's dream alarms:

No braying horn or screaming fife

At dawn shall call to arms. tage is the care of those whom they left behind: those who were dependent upon them, and are now the first lien on the Dominion finances. Soldiers and sailors, men of the Regiment and men of the Naval Reserve.

Their mothers, widows and orphans cannot live upon the reflected glory of their deeds.

therefore they are now the their care is a first duty: one which we cannot, dare not.

shirk. The spirits of those who died would rise up in reproach is due their loved ones, left be

SILK AS CHEAP AS COTTON

Fire Motor Truck

As the hallowed shrine is apgles echo shrill and sweet, let the remembrance of those whose timulation of moral courage to emand that if there are any wrongs, that such be righted. The imitation of the real will be present. The pomp and panoply of war, without its dread, will be presence of a firing party will lend reality to the ritual. The wreaths placed upon the shrine will be floral tributes to those thankful but saddened hearts

there will be deposited the beau-seen, and so the flowers are vivid testimony of the transiency of jewel is laid is the hearts of the men who followed them. The witnessed. The simulation of actualities will be observed in the solemn ceremonial, and the who did not come back. With

S. S. Portia Reclassed.

tiful but fading flowers of the field, freshly glowing with the colors with which nature has endowed them, fit, yet transient, emblems of the beauty of those lives which were offered up as a sacrifice to the Moloch of war. But each has its lesson. Life is beautiful but transient. We go beautiful but transient. We go from hence and are no more Upheld Supreme Court Decision.

mortals, glowing with life while And martial music cleaves the sky.

"Above their wreath-strewn graves we kneel
They kept the faith and fought the fight.

Through flying lead and crimson steel
They plunged for Freedom and the Right.

"May we, their grateful children, learn
Information was received from London yesterday afternoon that the Privy Council had dismissed the appeal of the Standard Oil Company in the case of T. & M. Winter against them for damages for breach of contract. The Supreme Court gave judgment in favour of Messrs. T. & M. Winter for $15,800.00 which has now been confirmed by the Privy Council. Messrs. Howley, K.C., and C. E. Hunt were counsel for Messrs. Winter, and L. E. Emerson for the Standard Oil Company.

They plunged for Freedom and the Right.

"May we, their grateful children, learn
Information was received from London yesterday afternoon that the Privy Council had dismissed the appeal of the Standard Oil Company in the case of T. & M. Winter against them for damages for breach of contract. The Supreme Court gave judgment in favour of Messrs. T. & M. Winter for $15,800.00 which has now been confirmed by the Privy Council. Messrs. Howley, K.C., and C. E. Hunt were counsel for Messrs. Winter, and L. E. Emerson for the Standard Oil Company. Regiment. They are its jewel and the casket in which that Escaped Lunatic Brought Back.

Constable James O'Neil and Sergt Constable James O'Neil and Sergt. Nugent have been successful in locating the missing man Juke who escaped from the Asylum a couple of weeks ago. The man was captured at Rantem, T.B., and brought to the city by last evening's train. Juke appeared to be enjoying the best of health. According to his statement he travelled by night and slett by day travelled by night and slept by day, and claims to have had plenty of food, but does not state where he got it. At the Police Station a substantial sum of money was found on his person. During last night he was conveyed to the Insame Asylum.

Police Court.

A youth of Mayor's Path arrested under warrant for a serious crime was remanded for 8 days, pending medical evidence.

Here and There.

AT THE DOCK.—Steamers Strath-cona, Sea Scout, Watchful, Lobelia, Hartside and Ranger are at the dock

AT THE BALSAM.-Rev. W. Mc Kirley and wife, St. John's; Mrs. and Miss Roberts, Change Islands; Stan-ley Kennedy and wife, Miss M. Kenedy, Western Bay; Mr. and Mrs. W

RELIEF GOODS STOLEN.-It is reported that a number of robberies have taken place at Bay Bulls Arm, T.B. The goods stolen was relief the sufferers in the recent forest fires.

The members of the C. C. C. Boat Club are requested to meet at the C. L. B. Boat Club at 7.30 sharp this evening. A full attendance requested. J. M. TOB-IN, Hon. Sec'y,—11y3,11

SALMON PLENTIFUL-Passenger who came by the Prospero state that fish are very scarce North, but sal-mon are reported as plentiful from Conche to LaScie, and are selling at 10 cents per lb. There is no ice about St. Julien's. The weather North is ing event took place on Wednesdaynight when a number of lady friends waited upon Miss Josie Kennedy and tendered her a surprise in the form of a "tin shower" consisting of useful kitchen utensils. Miss Kennedy, who is shortly to participate in a happy event, thanked the donors in a brief but pleasing speech and afterwards entertained them with refreshments. "Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead, Dear as the blood ye gave;

No impious footsteps e'er shall tread
The herbage of your grave;
Nor shall your glory be forgot
While fame her record keeps,
Or honor points the hallowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps." [Editor's Note.—The authors of the beautiful and appropriate lines beginning and ending this article, are Joyce Kilmer and Theodore O'Hara.]

The Governor General has been suddenly obliged to defer his visit to Newfoundland. All arrangements made for next week must therefore be considered cancelled. All invitations owever will hold good for cor-esponding dates as soon as his grival is fixed. The earliest pos-

There are a great many things the the qualities and power of the two motor fire trucks, recently purchased from the above Company by the Fire Department of St. John's, on Monday at 11 o'cfock, which will be witnessed by the heads of Departments and prominent citizens. The exhibition promises to be most interesting as Mr. Jacobs will put the auto trucks through all their paces, in a demonstration of their hill climbing abilities, the steeps to be negotiated being Lime Street. Holloway Street, Barters Hill and Court House Hill which is the steepest of the lot, the grade being 40 per cent and not being a perfect gradient, the test on the trucks in essaying this climb will be most severe one. The trucks will carry full capacity fire load of men and equipment. things that are offered, and because you can get almost anything you are sous, of course, why this lady came feature that appealed to her most strongly was the extensive scope of buying opportunities.

Let us for a minute or two examine this reason and, if we can, find out the advantage of such a motive for selecting one store more than another as a every need of daily life for the person son of the extensive stocks always this: She came here because she had a better chance of getting what she you add to this lady's reason the fact that all goods, quality considered, are offered at "St. John's Lowest Prices -always", you will arrive at the rea son why so many hundreds of people find at The Royal Stores the fullest shopping satisfaction.

THE GLEANER.

Memorial Service.

UNVEILING OF TABLET. The following is the In Merioriam Service in connection with the un-veiling of the Mural Tablet which takes place in the Congregational Church, Queen's Road, on to-morrow (Sunday) at 10.30 a.m.

Opening Sentences. The Lord's Prayer: Hymn No. 647 Lesson. Anthem. Prayer. Notices and Offering.

"God Save the King."
Names of the men, of the congregation who made the Supreme Sacrifice, and enlightened people of the country, but to delude the innocent and unsus-sembly that no attack had been made to swell the innocent and unsus-sembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of the Assembly that no attack had been made by him against that admirable education of t Langmead, H. C. Noonan, M. R. Lussell, A. J. White, O. Steele, H. G. Thomas, J. Watts, W. Watts.

Memorial Address by Rev. Hugh

Hymn. Benediction The Last Post! Dead March by Highland Brigade. the Joint Service.

Owing to the non-arrival of Rev. D McKinnon and in view of the special memorial service being held to-mor row morning at which the Newfoundland Highlanders will be present, if has been decided that St. Andrew's congregation accept the invitaworship with them at both service to morrow. Services to be at 10.30.

Coastal Boats.

F. H. ELLIS CO.

GOVERNMENT.

S. S. Portia will take up schedule west about next Wednesday. REIDS Argyle left Burin at 7 p.m. yester day, outward.

Clyde left Moreton's Hr. at 2.10 m. yesterday, outward.
Carmen left Port Union at 9.38 p.m. yesterday.
Diana at Humbermouth.
Glencos left Norris Point at 4.10 g

1. Yesterday, outward. Home arrived at Lewisporte at 4.20 Kyle left Bort aux Basques at 12.55

Meigle at North Sydney.
Sagona arrived at Placentia at 1
m. and sailed at 7.15 a.m. for 8 ohn's.
Petrel no report since Clarenville. esterday morning.

Ranger at St. John's.

Edmund Donald—No report since tle Harbor on the 30th ult.

Personal.

N. D. CO., Limited

At BADGER and MILLERTOWN.

Steady Employment for all Men, offering pay for Good Men.

BADGER MILLERTOWN 33c an hour. 35c an hour.

resu

poss

To

Self re Reg. $4.50 Reg. $5.25

Naza

right

come tres.

Reg. $

Reg. S

Reg. $

Reg. S

Reg. $3 Reg. $3

Satisfactory Board and Lodging provided by the Company at $25.00 per

The Company will endeavour to give one and all satisfaction and a square deal while engaged at such work.

SUB-CONTRACTING. — Considerably higher rates are now being earned by men culting pulpwood by the cord. Plenty of opportunity for good men to make big earnings on this basis during the summer.

For any further particulars apply to

N. D. CO., HITD

Badger or Millertown.

Low Down Politics.

ily3.10i.eo

Sir Michael Cashin's lucid and caustic criticism of the Prime Minister's cowardly attack upon him and his "Star," evoked loud and prolonged applause from those who were present at last night's session of the Legislature. Squires repeated attempts to rouse sectarian animosity in this country, and his efforts to divide the Doas the Leader of the Opposition stated in the Assembly, the intelligent electician like Sources, whose efforts are ate and passionate appeals in the hope The Unveiling of the Tablet by His may be made for the Government.

Excellency the Governor. Squires began his political camed and which he used to such advanthe Government organs supporting Sir Michael Cashin were adopting similar and ill-advised, but in a campaign in which a Catholic is endeavouring to religion and christian ideals were sustain his Government against an energetic and unscrupulous opponent own political ends. Sir Michael furof another denomination, and knows ther stated that in referring to the inpolitical associates in Wednesday's that such opponent is endeavoring to cident at Pay de Verde he had no in divide the country on sectarian lines, tention of offending, much less insu it is not conceivable that even the least intelligent of his supporters sociation. He had many friends wh would of themselves attempt any such mad policy as that of which Sir ganization, some of whom were car Michael and his party have been ac- | didates of his party and a great many minion on sectarian lines are well cused. Sir Michael in last night's de- of whom were his political supporter known to all intelligent people; but, bate handled the Prime Minister without gloves. He first denied the charg- that paper would refrain from further es preferred against him in the "Star" reference to this sectarian out tors are not easily swayed by a poli- of attacking the Methodist College and until the action of the Roman Ca of making insulting references to the Church and Knights of Colum directed, not () convince the educated Methodist Conference. Sir Michael would be announced, appeared to tional institution, nor did he in any Premier Squires had made ins that by this nefarious method, capital way, either directly or indirectly, re- references to the Star of the Sea H fer to the Methodist Conference or to the Irish people, and St. Patrick's plot. During Sir Michael's specific plot. During Sir Michael's specific plot. When he read from the "Star" the Sir Michael further stated that he had tarianism and has ept that flag float- been generous to all educational ining ever since In October, when his stitutions as far as his means would silent but uncomfortable, and first sectarian appeal was published in permit, and would be found just as the "Star," he accused the "Herald" ready to assist the Methodist body as adjournment, and "Daily News" of using the very tactics which he premeditatedly adoptin this country. He had always entage in three campaigns. He pleaded deavored to be fair and just, and be was accused of using in Bay the excuse for his base conduct that lieved that the great body of Meth- but did not attempt to deny odists, as well as those of other de ing written the editorials nominations who differed from him, commented on so strongly Michael Cashin were adopting similar nominations who differed from him, position. It is regrettable methods, knowing full well that in a would not accuse him of any narier Squires should persist country in which two-thirds of the row-minded or bigoted ideas in his nicious practice of attacking people are Protestant, no Catholic dealings with them, either as a public of the leader would or could dare attempt man or private citizen. The vicious any such insane tectics. In the heat attacks made upon him by the "Star" of an evenly balanced political cam- and the foul charges made against him in no instance was this mor tion of the Congregational Church to paign irresponsibles may use such were made with one object, of damagable than on the Treasury methods which are always excusable ing him in the estimation of the Pro-

ing, the members of the Orange As The attitude of the "Star." in which telligent members of the Go partmental heads gave unn signs of disapproval of the F conduct, and we feel assurred sist on a more decent line of ism in future, Such low, for, and ungenerous attacks w future, Such low, tical opponents could only from a disordered mind and edly cause as much disgust i

Knowling's

Grocery Departments. EAST, WEST AND CENTRAL,

offer the following: CUERANTS-Good quality, loose, per lb. 29c. CURRANTS-1 lb. pckgs., cleaned, per lb. . 24c. PRUNES-Good quality, per lb. 20c. CHERRIES, GLACE—Best quality, per lb. 85c. RAISINS, SEEDED-1 lb. pckgs., per lb. . . 30c.

CHOCOLATE-For icing, per cake15c. We have received also a shipment of the celebrated

KIWI BOOT POLISHES

as used by the Australian, New Zealand and Newfoundland forces when overseas. These Polishes are outside competition, being absolutely the best in any OX BLOOD and STAIN POLISHES, per tin 20c.

G. Knowling, Ltd.,

being used by Squires to further his testant people of this country, whose ment as they do in Opposition Sectarianism received a sever on the fields of France and There Protestant and Catho and Atheist, propounded ali-great doctrine of Christianity shalt love thy neighbor as It remains for a man like S again warm into life this hydr ed monster; to insult Catholic zations, outrage all decency to records of returned sol insult the widow of one of gallant dead, and to do all impunity in order that the sections of this Dominion man duced to retain in power of Anderson Squires, whose sole de is to further his personal ambiti Express Passengers.

The following passengers joined be express at Port aux Basques yesterds morning, having landed from SK Kyle:—M. E. Philips, G. B. King, Crane, H. Lee, Major and Mrs. Butle and son, W. H. Dolden, H. Roches W. Alstome, A. Willar, E. and M. Moore and 2 sons, Miss B. William J. E. Hennson, G. D. Lyland, A. Burke, Mrs. F. Kettler, E. G. and M. Burke, Mrs. F. Kettler, E. G. and M. Manuel, Miss M Manuel, Mrs. J. M. Kay and son, C. J. and Mrs. Burk was and son, C. J. and Mrs. Burk with the second of the secon The following passengers j

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES GI

Fan