

Whitbourne Notes.

The schools opened here on the 2nd and 11th of September. The Church of England, on the 2nd inst., under Miss M. Morgan, of Clarke's Beach, and the Gillispie, of Fortune Harbor, taking charge of the Roman Catholic school this year.

There are persistent rumors of a new station being built here shortly after the old building will be torn down. A new site near the mail box is being chosen. With a new station and comfortable waiting rooms, Whitbourne will be able to hold up its head. We hope some day soon to be able to announce in these pages to the travelling public comfortable and attractive waiting rooms here at the once railway town of the island. The railway company should this project materialize, would have an opportunity to help the various saw-mill in that locality, with orders for lumber, and also to give employment to those who need work.

September was a very fine month here. Last year we had a "snow flurry" on the 21st, which was extraordinarily early.

Potato digging is now commencing. A very heavy thunder storm was experienced here on the 18th which coincided with the thunder storm at Charlottetown on the same date, but without the destruction and loss of the stock as at the above place, we are thankful to say. Our storm here ran about 11.45 a.m. and continued some hours and was the worst felt here for many years, the marvellous lightning turning night into day, and the heavenly artillery crashing and rumbling overhead, accompanied by very heavy rain, was certainly awe-inspiring.

We are sorry to chronicle the almost sudden death on the 27th inst., of Mrs. John Gushue, who was barely a week ill, paralysis being the cause of her death. The funeral took place on the 29th, and was largely attended, interment being at the Roman Catholic cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Gushue, and the motherless children in their sad loss.

Dr. O'Connell, of Placentia, has been visiting the sick here of late, Dr. Chisholm, owing to an accident, being unable to travel. We hope he will soon be about again, as usual. Later—Came on Sunday's express, Oct. 1st.

Rev. J. Reay returned from a visit to Carbonear on Wednesday last, 27th inst.

We are sorry to hear of Rev. J. G. Cragg's illness.

Miss Winnie Ballie, granddaughter of the above clergyman, paid a short visit to Whitbourne early in the month, also visiting Heart's Content before returning to town (Sept.)

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sparkes in their great grief, in the death of their only child, Ada, who for the past two months, was seriously ill, in consequence of a severe chill. Shortly after noon on Sunday Oct. 1st, her spirit took its flight. Ada was just budding into young womanhood, being nearly fifteen years of age, and the blow falls heavily on her parents, who had great hopes of their daughter being the joy and pride of their future years, as in the past, Ada had been a student at Spencer College during the past two years, living at Spencer Lodge. She was a member of the Girl Guides and beloved of her school fellows and all who knew her. All possible was done to combat disease, but Divine Providence willed otherwise. Her funeral took place on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, and was conducted by Rev. C. Jeffrey, who attended her during her illness. The casket was a handsome one, and looked very lovely covered with beautiful floral wreaths. A crowded church testified to the esteem of her friends. During the singing of the hymn "Brief life is here our portion," the mortal remains of our dear sister, was lovingly taken from the church to God's Acre, and laid in its last resting place, "until the day dawn."

Warm Summer sunshine brightly there, Soft Southern wind blow gently here; Green turf above, the light, the light, Good Night, dear heart, Good Night, Good Night!

Requiescat in Pace. COR.

Oct. 4, 1922.

Household Notes.

Now is the time to put up fried ham. After removing bone and most of fat, cut ham in medium thick slices, brown quickly, pack into hot jars, and add a little of the drippings from the frying pan. Adjust rubbers and covers and sterilize.

While preserving make a delicious carrot relish. Parboil 3 pounds carrots and peel. With 6 lemons put carrots through the meat chopper, add 4 pounds sugar and cook until thick, but 10 minutes before taking from fire, add half cup chopped almonds.
