As will be seen by a report of sev eral meetings held, Mr Ferrier is at patriot will set his foot on such present engaged in visiting all the important points in the Centre Riding. Then we have what may be called the argument by force or threat freely employed either to prevent men from voting for Stirton andGow,or to induce them not to vote at all. What will the free and independent electors of South Wellington think when we tell them that two of our town officials were threatened with the loss of their situa-tions if they dared to vote for Stirton and Gow. One of them manfully told these specimens of Tory tyrany that if he lost his head he would vote the Reform ticket. All honor to such in-dependent men. Let no man be frightened by such threats, they are the desperate efforts of men who seek to subvert and turn the franchise to their own personal ends, and who em-ploy means which no honest, upright, honorable person would employ.

The North Riding.

The Elora Observer says that parties are circulating a rumour that Mr. Foley enlighten the electors on his policy or intends to retire from the North Riding contest, for the purpose of making way for some other Reformer. This is one of the paltry dodges of his oppenents, who word, or written line can be pro- Fergus, and one or two other Tories, in the circulation of such villainous of the purest water, halling from the same place, the party makes a raid on sciousness of defeat. MELANCHOLY AND FATAL ACCIDENT.
—A very melancholy accident occurred on Saturday evening in Oakland, that had latal results. Hector McPherson, a native of Prince Edward Island, aged 37 years, lost his life under peculiar circumstances. He was employed in the shop of Mr. William Sohet, blacksmith, and at the close of his week's labor, as was his custom, went to take a bath. Two persons tanding on the whard observed that McPherson, in diving, remained an unusual length of time under water, and desiring to lend assistances in case of necessity, procured a boat and brought into the surface in a few moments. McPherson when placed in his room was thoroughly conscious, but the unfortunate man must have irreparably injured his spinal chord, for he remained in full possession of his faculties, though completely paralyzed, until ten o'clock yesterday morning, when he expired. Decered served in the Federal army during the war, and was among the party who, despite inminent risk of life, spiked and rendered useless guins at Harper's Ferry, when it was abadoned by Gen. Banks.— San Francies Bullet.
