Wells Well Fixed for Firearms.

New York, March 17.—George Wells, of antford, Ont., who was arrested on the wery by Central Office Detective Reap d Wade on suspicion of having tobbed nith & Wesson's revolver manufactory in bringfield, was remanded in the Tombs slice Court to await the arrival of extration papers. Wells, the detectives say, at up at the Glenham House in Spring slid, on the night of the robbery. He bught a trunk, had it brought to the hotel, and removed his booty in it. His haul consted of about 175 revolvers of 32, 38, and 4 calibre. He had already pawned 35 or them when arrested. His method was oget rid of one at a time. Nearly all of the pawned weapons have been recovered.

baling. Foor Welsh was represented as having been marched out and with brutal curses compelled to salute Lieutenant Hearn, despite the fact that he as member of the guard was by law and regulations exempted from the requirement. "In vain did the young soldier plead that paragraph 391 of the Regulations fully excused him. His relentless persecutors defied the laws of Congress and compelled him to stand and deliver' for the purpose of adding to the indignities already heaped upon him. Could the readers of the Palladium have heard the low, deep mutterings of the man in the garrison this night, no mutiny on their part need have surprised them." The editor, too, backed up his correspondent in a three-quarter-column assault on the ridiculous etiquetie of the army. "It may be." he said, "all well enough in the consc 'ipted camps of Europe, where whole nations are forced to service under arms, to exact of the rank and file this slavish exhibition to superiors; but it is an insult to the high intelligence of the soldiers of free America, that because a beardless boy happens to have a strap upon his shoulder, thousands of scarred veterans should be compelled to do him homage. The whole idea of the salute is repugnant to the republican mind and should be abolished; and for that matter as we have no further use for an army, why stop at the salute!"

their own peaceful and remarkably well regulated metropolis. But Colonel Morris was himself wofully perturbed about this time. After immolating Cross and other officers by name, as was to be expected, the Palladium man had taken to poking ugly little insinuations at the post commander; and this, thought Morris, was the height of ingratitude. He was in no pleasant mood when the men came marching upfrom stables, and it stung him to see how cordial everybody was to thears, who, confound it, was the cause of the whole row. The telegram he had just received settled that matter once and for all; yet he was glad he had an adjutant on
