The government had provided rooms, servants and a carriage at the Alexandria Hotel for Rear Admiral J. N. Miller, United States navy, and Gen. Miles, but the invitation was not extended to their wives. Gen Miles arrived first with his wife, and occupied both rooms, ed to remain at the hotel, and repaired to lodgings in Half Moon street, where his family was installed. The court officials were greatly distressed, and wished to take a suite of rooms at the Victoria Hotel for Admiral Miller; but the latter declined.
