Among the churches where services have been held are the First Methodist, St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Adelaide Street Baptist, and Dundas Center Methodist.

HAD HIS FEET FROZEN.

John Manuals, hailing from Saginaw, Mich., was taken to Victoria Hospital yesterday, with both feet badly frozen. He came to the city on freight train, and was suffering such pain that he asked the railway authorities to have him removed to a hospital. The doctors found the case to be a most serious one, and at first it was thought it would be necessary to amputate. Thanks to skillful treatment from the hospital staff this will be unnecessary, as his condition is improving steadily.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"THE BONNIE BRIER BUSH."

Mr. J. H. Stoddard, the veteran actor, who will produce "The Bonnie Brier Bush" at the Grand Monday evening, is the latest of the experienced and famous theatrical folk to recount his recollections of the American stage and his associates thereon. Joseph Jefferson, Clara Morris and Stuart Rolton had all written their autobiographies for magazine publication before Mr. Stoddard's story came out in book form from the Century press. Mr. Stoddard's stories in particular are delightfully droll, and told in a vein of dry humor.

WORTH KNOWING

At This Season of the Year.

Any cough accompanied by expectoration which lasts over three or four days, requires attention and treatment. This does not mean a visit to the hospital, nor to your physician nor wholesale drugging with patent medicines; but it means that some slight, the least effective and most reliable remedy like Stuart's Catarrh Tablets should be used to ward off any possible termination in pneumonia, chronic catarrh, bronchitis or consumptive cough.

All of these formidable diseases start from a common cold, neglected or allowed to run its course and it is only the exercise of common sense which enables a cure to be made as quickly as possible, not so much for what it is at the moment, but what it may become if neglected.

Perhaps no remedy is so safe, reliable and convenient to stop a cold or obstinate cough as Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

The extract of blood root contained in them combined with the red gum of the Eucalyptus tree seem to put the mucous membrane of the nose, mouth and throat in a condition to throw off the germs of catarrh, bronchitis and consumption, and as they are taken internally they seem to equalize the circulation and place in the body in that condition of health which resists, and throws off the germs of disease.

A person in perfect health rarely catches cold and if he does, throws it off in a day or two, but where the cold hangs on, stopping up the nostrils, irritating the throat or there is persistent annoying cough it is evident that the system for some reason is unable to throw off the disease germs which cause the trouble; a little assistance is necessary, and this is best given by the use of some harmless germ destroying antiseptic like Stuart's Catarrh Tablets which are also palatable and equally so for children and adults.

Druggists sell these tablets at 50 cents full sized package, higher in price than troches and cheap cough syrups. But Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain antiseptic properties which actually cure colds, catarrh and throat and lung troubles, while it is a notorious fact that cough drops and cough syrups are largely composed of opium, cocaine and similar drugs that have no curative power.

It is also true that many popular liquid medicines and tonics for catarrh depend upon the alcohol they contain which give simply a temporary stimulation of no real benefit for any trouble catarrhal or otherwise.

THE JESSIE MACLACHLAN FAREWELL.

Great interest is being manifested in the last opportunity, for several years at least, of hearing Miss Jessie MacLachlan, the Queen of Scottish Song, who will be at the New Grand Opera House, London, on Thursday evening, Jan. 15. There will be three other great attractions—Mrs. Agnes Knox Black, the famous Scottish and dramatic reciter; Mr. Harold Jarvis, who will sing Irish and English songs, as well as Scotch, and the greatest harpist in the world, Mr. John Chisholm. It is an extraordinary combination. Arrangements are made to prevent the crushing of seats that took place on the previous occasion, by additional facilities for exchanging tickets for reserved seats. Carriages may be ordered for 10:45. Miss MacLachlan will be in Great Britain next year, and the year after goes to Australia and New Zealand. Plan opens Tuesday, Jan. 15, at the New Grand Opera House.

WERE RUNNING 60 MILES AN HOUR

Later Details of the Big Four Collision—Fireman Killed—Wreck Took Fire.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 10. — Running at 60 miles an hour, two Big Four passenger trains collided last night while rounding a curve between Moro and Bethalto, Ill., and so far as known this morning, one fireman was killed, and three others were seriously injured. The collision was the result of a failure of the brakes of one of the trains. Some reports say that many passengers were hurt, but a message to the Associated Press by long-distance telephone from a witness to the effect that all the passengers have escaped, with minor injuries.

Passengers in the day coaches were hurried from their seats, and many of them were painfully bruised. Only the sleeping-cars were left on the track. Both engines are lying on their sides.

DEBRIS TOOK FIRE.

The southbound train, known as the "Big Four," was running rapidly around a curve, when the northbound train, the New York express, dashed into view, and the next moment a terrific collision strewn the track with debris. The impact overturned the day coaches, and the day coaches were not well filled and the passengers succeeded in escaping from the flames. Until the wreckage shall be cleared away it will probably not be known whether anyone else but the fireman perished.

It is officially stated that a mistake in orders caused the disaster.

VETERAN MERCHANT DEAD

Demise of Thomas Watkins, of Hamilton—Other Deaths.

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 10.—Hamilton's oldest drygoods merchant, Thomas Watkins, died at the residence of his son-in-law at Toronto on Thursday, aged 85 years. THE BOVRIL BEARER COMPANY.

(From Army and Navy, London.)

London, Dec. 22.—Acting on the authority recently given by the War Office to form bearer companies for field hospital work as independent units attached to each Volunteer Brigade Bearer Limited, the well-known makers of army rations, and concentrated foods, have just formed a company of their own employees for service with the Fourth, or City of London, Brigade of Volunteers. The company was inaugurated by Major-General Sir Arthur Turner, C.B., R.A., who complimented the men in the highest terms on their smart and soldierly appearance, and spoke of the enthusiasm, patriotism and promptitude with which they had responded to their country's call for better equipment in this most important branch of the service. The new company has just been inspected by Colonel W. L. Gubbins, M.B., the principal medical officer for the Home District, accompanied by Captain Douglas, V.C., R.A.M.C., at its headquarters in Holborn Town Hall. The full strength of the Boveril Bearer Company was on parade, under command of Surgeon-Captain A. C. Tunstall, and was put through company and stretcher drill by Surgeon-Major R. E. Wilson. The men were then examined very closely, by Colonel Gubbins upon "first aid," and the various modes in the treatment of the injured. At the close of the review, Colonel Gubbins, remarking that he was not given to flattery, praised the new company for its equipment, drill and general knowledge of field and hospital work. He closed by saying that he expected to be able to report the organization, after the next annual inspection, as one of the best Bearer Companies in the Home District.

NON-UNIONISTS' PLAINTS

Strikers Said to Have Yelled "Scab" at a Funeral.

Minister Troubled in Securing Bearers for Non-Unionists.

Philadelphia, Jan. 10.—Counsel for the non-union men opened yesterday's proceedings by presenting the indictments and pleas of guilty of certain union men for acts of lawlessness, and showed that members of the miners' union became their bondsmen.

Lawrence Jenkins, a deputy sheriff in Luzerne County during the strike, told of instances where he and other deputy sheriffs were sent to different places to quell disturbances. He said a state of lawlessness existed.

Rev. Carl Hauser, a Lutheran Slovak minister of Freeport, said when he officiated at the funeral of a non-union man in Panther Creek Valley, he experienced the greatest difficulty in securing pallbearers. When the body was taken from the house, Mr. Hauser said the strikers yelled "Scab!" and spat upon the coffin. Some of them made such remarks as "It's a shame to bury a scab—throw him to the dogs."

John Harville said he was attacked by strikers and had an eye shot out. He was unable to recognize his assailants. Max Kiesel told of having been assaulted.

Counsel for the non-union men then called John Mitchell to the stand and asked him if he knew William Dettrey, who was yesterday elected president of the union in the seventh district. Mitchell replied in the affirmative, and then counsel called John Sherman, of Scranton, testified Dettrey's home town. Sherman testified that he heard Dettrey say that anyone who worked during the strike ought to have his throat cut.

Frank Kehley said he heard Dettrey say that all men caught working should be given a "good thumping." He said the remark was made at a meeting of a local union.

Brigadier-General Gobin, commander of the third brigade, N. G. P., who was in command of the anti-strike regions during the strike, told of the call for troops on July 20, when a riot occurred at Shenandoah.

It was impossible to secure vehicles to haul the supplies from the camp. He was forced to send to another town for a conveyance. He then told in detail of the condition of affairs in the coal region during his stay there, of the stone-throwing, of the assaults on his men, frequent cases of dynamiting and other acts of lawlessness. He said the sheriff of Carbon County refused to call on the Governor for troops. The general said he had been asked by the coal companies to protect non-union men, but he refused because he had not sufficient troops. He said the situation was most serious. He feared that the railroad men would be intimidated, and he would be unable to move troops. Threatening letters were also sent to him.

Happiness is the proper goal of human effort, and health is indispensable to it—take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A CAREFULLY-PREPARED PILL—

Much time and attention were expended in the experimenting with the ingredients that enter into the composition of Parnell's Vegetable Pills before they were first offered to the public. Whatever other pills may be, Parnell's Vegetable Pills are the result of much expert study, and all persons suffering from dyspepsia or disordered liver and kidneys may confidently accept them as being what they are represented to be.
