among the guests at the wedding of Mr. Meers' eldest daughter, Miss Louie.

—Miss Cecil Farewell, of Port Huron, is visiting here.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tretheway are visiting Owen Sound relatives.

—Miss Maud Sanborn, of Chicago, is visiting at her home, 54 King street.

—Dr. H. Abbott went to Buffalo today to attend a meeting of dentists.

—Miss Edith Hawkins is home from Port Huron for the Christmas vacation.

—Mrs. Horace L. Hall has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Sarnia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and family, of Port Huron, are the guests of London friends.

—Miss Luella Tripp and Miss May Petheram, of this city, are visiting friends at Dunfer.

—Miss Leslie, of Chicago, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hooper, Horton street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Burkholder and family, of Port Huron, have been visiting relatives in London.

—Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Leslie, of Winnipeg, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. James Ross, Piccadilly street.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. Armstrong, Clarence street, have as guests, Mr. Jos. Eby and daughter, of Southampton, and Mr. Jos. Armstrong, Owen Sound.

—Mr. J. Bart Sheppard, Montreal, is on time with the firm of Messrs. Laing, Sutherland & Co., of this city, in town visiting old friends.

—The Bishop of Huron will hold a Visitation at Emmanuel Church, London township, next Sunday afternoon and administer the apostolic rite of confirmation.

—Mr. B. C. Ashford, after serving the Grand Trunk as carchecker and tracer in the freight yards at Brockville for several years, has returned to London, having secured a position with a lumber firm.

—The Emmanuel Church, London township, Sunday school, which has been held tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, has, owing to unforeseen circumstances, been postponed to Monday evening, Jan. 1.

—The following ladies—Mrs. Howard and the Misses Beattie, Martin and Clegg—representing the flower mission in connection with the Anglican churches in this city, visited Victoria Hospital the other evening, and presented each patient with roses, carnations and appropriate texts, which were greatly appreciated.

—Sunday the children of the Dundas Center Methodist Church Sunday school contributed about $40 toward the relief of those who were rendered homeless by the Jamaica hurricane. Each Christmas was a collection taken up in the Sunday school, and the proceeds devoted to some special cause.

—Miss Bertha Christie was the hostess of a very charming dinner last evening at Christie Hall, for the Snake Island Fishing Party. The dinner was given in honor of her father, Mr. John Christie, and a most enjoyable evening was spent in whist and song. Miss Christie was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. W. J. Christie, of Winnipeg.

—The children of the junior branch of the W. M. A. of St. Paul's Cathedral were afforded on Monday afternoon a most enjoyable sleigh drive, given by a prominent member of the congregation, by which the little ones were entertained at tea in Cronyn Hall by the president, Miss W. Haskett, Mrs. Luscombe, Miss Lockhead and several others. The object of the society is two-fold—to cultivate a charitable, generous and loving spirit in the children, by helping others, as well as themselves.

—At the Adelaide Street Baptist Church on Sunday, splendid Christmas music was given by the quartet, which comprised: Miss May Pierce, soprano; Miss Maud Pierce, alto; C. F. Maynard, tenor; and C. G. Moorhead, bass. The program also included: "Behold, I Bring You Glad Tidings"; tenor solos, C. F. Maynard; "The New Born King"; "Shout, the Glad Tidings"; soprano solo, Miss May Pierce; duet, the Misses Pierce; quartet, "Town of Bethlehem"; solo and quartet, "It is Jesus."

FREE FROM SICKNESS.

The Aged People's Home has been comparatively free from sickness this winter. At present there is only one inmate under the care of the medical attendant, which is very gratifying at this season of the year.
