WORK FOR PEACE

Declare It Can Be Made With Honor to Russia.

REVENGE IN TIME INEVITABLE

Russia Would Abandon Her! Manchurian Policy, but Would Not Pay an indemnity.

St. Petersburg, March 20, 10:45 a.m.-While Emperor Nicholas, whose word is final, still declines to abandon the prosecution of the war, and the Govmment maintains its ability to coninue the conflict, the Associated Press s in a position to state that powerful influences, including several of the Emperor's own ministers, are now strongly urging that the time has come to indicate to Japan Russia's desire for peace upon a reasonable basis. Should Japan then attempt to impose oo onerous conditions, these influences argue that in view of the universal vish to see the bloody conflict ended. Russia's position will be strengthened abroad by the alienation of sympathy from Japan, and the situation at home improved when the nation is made to understand that the Emperor's pacific proposals have been met with impossible terms. One of the Emperor's ministers, in a conversation, said: "We have suffered bitter defeat on land and sea, We can, however, still continue the war. But both countries have suffered great losses in blood and treasure, and it would only profit the rivals of both were we to fight on until one or the ther is exhausted. Russia has a hard task fighting the war against such adversaries 6,000 miles from home, and I contend she can make a dignified peace. vithout glory, but not without honor. With the army and navy reorganized, in five, ten or fifteen years, there will ome inevitably our revenge. No permanent peace is possible now or later unless Japan is reasonable"

To the suggestion of the possibility of n alliance between Russia and Japan, he minister said: "A reasonable peace oust first be established." "What," was asked, "would be reason-

"Broadly speaking, Russia's renuncia-on of her entire Manchurian policy hould satisfy Japan's claims. She could have her protectorate over Korea, such privileges on the Kwan Tung Peninsula nd at Port Arthur as the powers would not oppose, and the Chinese Eastern Railvay be placed under international con-rol, Russia maintaining her rights to a ailway line through Northern Manchuria o Vladivostock 'What would be Russia's attitude on the bject of indemnity?"
"Russia never yet has paid indemnity, ent for indemnity when territory ne Chinese Eastern Railway, which was uilt with Russian money."

Proceeding, the minister said the difficulties of continuing the war were fully appreciated both from a military and financial standpoint, but neither was insurmountable. He denied emphatically that the negotiations for a French loan were adjourned because Russia would not make peace. He expected that these negotiations would be resumed soon. The success of the internal loan, the minister said, is assured. As for the question of a new army, much depended upon the exact situation when Gen. Linevitch got the army out of the range of danger. The minister said, further, that complete details of Gen. Kuropatkin's losses have not yet reached the Government; but it is already known that the Japanese reports are greatly exaggerated. The reports that 60 siege guns and many hundred cars were left behind is false, as practically no siege guns or relies to a second control of the range of danger. S:ENES FROM HAMLET aterpreted at Weekly "Pop" by Mr John Cowper.

heid in the auditorium on Satrday evening and attended, as usual, by a large crowd, was the performance f Mr. John Cowper, the scholarly English actor. His interpretation of two scenes from Hamlet, namely, that in the graveyard and that in which the shost makes its appearance to Hamlet, was very powerful. Mr. Cowper also rendered the dream of Wilfred Denver from the "Silver King," and the mental anguish and sorrow of Denver were vividly pictured. The audience generously applauded each piece. Mr. George Gower, baritone soloist of the evening, was well received in his rendition of "The Stars of Normandie," and "The Old Gray Mare," He sang "Hearts of Oak" in response to an encore. Miss Adelaide Lillywhite has a fine mezzooprano voice, and sang the following selections in a way that greatly pleased he audience: "Who'll Buy My Lavender?" "Life's Lullaby," and "Rosalie." Illustrated songs by Mr. Will Spence, which are always popular with "pop-ROSELLE POCOCKE, ORGANIST AND goers," closed a very enjoyable even-
