The track at Woodbine will be ready for galloping today, and this will be a great help to trainers, as the roads are in very bad order. The Seagram and Kirkfield horses will have the additional advantage of the use of the old Newmarket track at Little York. The field on the Kingston road east of the Hunt Club is in fine order. In billiards a kiss often spoils a good run, although as a rule osculations have been the cause of some tall sprinting, says the Star. Now, Billy, tell us all about it.

Sutton, the Canadian billiardist, certainly was in rare form the other day, when he made his great run of 234, and finished with an average of 100, a world's record. The former world's record was exactly one-half that, and was held by Vignaux, the Frenchman, recently defeated by Willie Hoppe.

If the 3-year-old Sir Wlifrid is purchased by a Canadian stable, which will send a representative after him, it will create a new interest in the stake events at the Woodbine this spring. Two such horses as Kinleydale and Sir Wilfrid have never been owned in Canada at one time. The price paid to secure Sir Wilfrid will have to be a large one.
