U. F. O. Disapproves Expenditures of Government On

Cadet System. CONDEMN GRANTS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Dec. 17.—The United Farmers of Ontario, in convention here this afternoon, went on record as disapproving military training in schools and protesting against any expenditure for such purpose by either federal or provincial govern-in proportion to the salary paid to teachers also passed.

A resolution that Bible training be made compulsory in public schools was held over.

Mrs. H. L. Laws, secretary of the United Farm Women's association in reviewing the work of the organization, said that the rural districts of Ontario had shown their power in the vote on the liquor question last Local Option Condemned.

Peter Porter, president of the Young United Farmers, said there was a great moral danger in the drift of rural young people to the urban centres. He condemned what he spoke of as a lack of morals in the cities referring particularly to the cigarette habit. He declared that the rural people of Ontario would not stand for any system of local option in the liquor traffic which would make Toronto the barroom of the province.
Resolutions on the temperance and political questions will be discussed

The result of the election of the directorate of the co-operative company, held on the day previous, showed the following picked for directors: G. A. Bothwell, Owen Sound; H. A. Gilroy, Alvinson; C. E. Merkley, Ironquois; James Ross, Woodbridge; R. J. McMillan, Seaforth; Hon. E. C. Drury, Joseph Little, Shelbourne; S. R. Montgomery, Dover Center, and J. A. McFeeters, Toronto, Elect Officers.

Elect Officers.

Mr. Bothwell was chosen as the new president, James Ross as vice-president, and J. J. Morrison as secretary-treasurer.

The final debate in the United Farmers' Provincial Debating league resulted in a win on the part of the Woodville club of Victoria county. The winners were Murray Smith and Archie Tolmie, who upheld the negative on the subjest: "Resolved, That Profit, is the Chief Purpose of Cooperative Enterprise." These young debaters scored a victory on Friday last at Lindsay against debaters sent

Jailor's Wife Throws Rocks; Prevents Escape of Prisoners

Associated Press Despatch.
Edmonton, Ky., Dec. 17.—Mrs. C. T. Garrett, wife of the jailer of Metcalf county, blocked a jail delivery here yesterday after she discovered Edward Jennings, awaiting trial on a charge of highway robbery, half way out of a window, the bars of which he had loosened.

Mrs. Garrett gathered an armful of rocks and began to throw them at Jennings. They came so close to the prisoner that he crawled back out of range. Jennings said later the first three rocks were "three strikes," and as Mrs. Garret's aim was improving, he abandoned his attempt to escape.
