THE "PROVINCE" AND ITS COR-RESPONDENT.

TO THE EDITOR: -For a combination of sillness any impotent blackguardism figures, I say that the figures were taken the effusions signed "John Stretsher," from the hospital books which were kept appearing lately in the Province, are inthe Times, "a corker."

How and journal with a pretence of How and journal with a pretence of being above the Yellow Kid or Yellow Dog variety could find room in its columns for such arrant trash is difficult to explain. The last letter, directing its feeble witticisms against the Lieutenant-Governor, may be a source of delight to the rag-tag hoodlums to whom the Province now seems bent on pandering, but will surely be condemned by such decent readers as may still be on the subscription list of that paper. The fact that a man is the official representative of Her Majesty, and that his position precludes him from making any reply or defence on his own behalf constitutes him, no doubt, a shining target in the eyes of a mud-slinging ragamuffin of the John Stretcher type. But that this should be ng above the Yellow Kid or Yellow paration.

Countenanced in a journal supposed to be conducted by gentlemen! God help the Liberals if the Province is to be their mouthpiece. This sort of thing may be an approved method of English Radicalism, but it is to be hoped the day is far distant when it will be introduced into the West as a feature of Canadian Liberalism. That the Times should reprint the letter with a whoop of edidian Liberalism. That the Times should reprint the letter with a whoop of editorial glee was only to be expected. Good taste is an unknown quantity with the Times. The fact of the manager of that paper being himself ambitious of occupying the Governor's position has never stood in the way of silly or malicious squibs appearing in its columns cious squibs appearing in its columns committee I may state it arose in this against the present occupant.
