FRIDAY JULY 2nd, 1909

On the morning of the announcement of the new venture the new incumbent came into town on this usual train from Surbiton, his head swimming with de-light. At the 'foot of Ludgate hill he met an old friend, whom he forthwith led into the Green Dragon bar. "Arthur," said he, "we really must celebrate. What d' you suppose has happened? Oh, you'd hever, never dream fi! Look! What d' you say to that, old boy?" "That" was a newly engraved card on which appeared this announcement: MF. CECIL APPLEBY BOTSFORD-HETHERINGTON, Ecclesiastical Editor, The Thunderer. "My work, old chap. It's the moss de-On the morning of the announcement

"Have you," he inquired, with much gravity—"have you a fast and well ap-pointed cab? Yes? Very well, then. You may drive me to Lambeth palace." At the palace a footmati took one of the new cards and conducted the own er of it to a pleasant reception room, where he sunggled in a vast chair and instantly went to sleep. The archhishop of Canterbury hap-pened to be very busy with his chap-lain, but at the sight of the card he feit sure that something of importance was at hand and sent his chaplain to inquire. That tail, slender, dark, ascet-ic gentleman strode slowly to the re-ception room and after a slight but decorous struggle succeeded in waking
