CREENWOOD PARK.

This is one of the most boautiful tracts with-in reach. It is situated in the village of Eglin-ton and runs east from Yonge. The village postoffice and a large public school building are on the property. A number of handsome houses have been erected and are in course of erection. The survey of the Belt Line Rallhouses have been erected and are in course of orection. The survey of the Belt Line Railway crosses the property. The lots are 100 feet front by an average of 200 feet deep. When North Toronto comes, as it will come in the near future, to be incorporated as a town, the seat of government and the centre of population will doubless be at Eglinton. This property, therefore, has a residence value independent of its situation as a suburb of Toronto, and many sales are now being made.

Prices range as follows:
