CRUSHED TO DEATH. Harry A. Ferguson's Tragic End.

When the G. T. R. section gang start-ed west for their day's work early on Tuesday morning they found the mutilated body of a man lying partially across the north track near the first semaphore in the local G. T. R. yard. Coroner Auld was notified, and on investigation it was was notified, and on investigation it was found that the remains were those of Harry A. Ferguson, and the Coroner had the body removed to Cook's undertaking rooms. Young Ferguson, who was only 24 years of age, had been in Watford and vicinity for the past six weeks, assist-ing his father, Mr. Charles Ferguson, who is engaged in selling woollen goods through the country. On Monday even-ing, in company with James Van Wyck, driver of one of the sales wagons, he started to the depot to take No. 5 express due at 0.22 m, for Pt. Huron to meet started to the depot to take No. 3 express due at 9.02 p. m. for Pt. Huron to meet his wife who is spending the summer at Huronic Beach. The train pulled in and Ferguson and his companion made a short cut through the G. T. R. gate to the de-pot. The doors on the coaches opposite side from the depot, are always closed, and Ferguson ran along the side of the train looking for a place to catch on to enter the car. The train started out and Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the Ferguson threw his grip to Van Wyck, telling him to forward it, and grasped the railing of the vestibule of a passing car, the foothold being rather narrow. He was seen clinging in this position for some distance, and it was supposed that he would be released when the conductor passed through, as it is a frequent oc-currence for passengers to catch on in this way. Just as the train reached the sema-phore he either slipped off or was shaken off, and his body drawn under the train and life crushed out. Deceased was only married a year, and his wife visited him here a few days ago. The family home is in Ann Arbor where the young man at-tended Michigan University, and had a-bout completed a course in law. He is survived by his father, an invalid mother and one eister. The family are former highly respected residents of London and the sad beneavement they have been called upon to bear is a severe blow.
