The oldest inhabitant of Old On tario will not be able to recall a summer so nearly approaching the ideal as the one which is now passing into fall. From the standpoint of agriculture (and this is mainly an agri-cultural province) it would be hard upon the season. early spring brought timely rains which were only a trifle too abundant. There was warmth to promote growth, but no scorching heat. The June frosts were so light as to be harmless, and throughout the summer rain never failed to come when it was needed. All field crops grew splendidly and througout there was an abundance of fresh grass for the stock. There was a little trouble in harvesting the sweet clover, some being spoiled by rain, but the other hay crops were taken in in good condition. Then came the grain harvesting, a lot of the wheat and oats going into the barns with little or no rain. Corn gives all appearance of a bumper crop, and potatoes will be more plentiful than for a dozen years, and so far there is no evid-ence of damage by rot. Such a sea-son is most fortunate for the country. Coming after two years of business depression, with only average crops, it will do much towards establishing confidence and reviving

WHERE WILL YOU BE AT 65 ?

The American Bankers' A-socia-tion is circulating a pamphlet comfrom Government statistics which shows the divergent financial careers of a hundred men who start on an equal footing at twenty-five years of age. There is no reason to doubt the accuracy of these figures. Here they are :

Ten years later, when all are 35 years of age, 10 are wealthy, 10 are in good circumstances, 40 have moderate means, 35 have saved nothing, and 5 are dead.

Twenty years later, when all are 45 years of age, 3 are wealthy, 65 self-supporting and no more, 16 are dependent on others, and 16 are

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Some times people say that education in these days is costing too much, but it is just possible that the following editorial that appeared in an American paper may convince them of the fact that it is the unessential things that are eating up

Lxuuries vs. Education

In 1920 the United States blew away in smoke of cigars and cigarettes $300,000,000 more than the total cost of education in 1918, according to P. P. Claxton, U.S. commissioner of education. The total cost of tobacco in all its forms in 1920 was five times the total cost of teacher's salaries in 1918 and almost exactly the same as the total cost of elementary and secondary education for the years 1914, 1917 and 1918. If the people who use tobacco had smoked two cigarettes instead of three, taken two "chaws" instead of three, and two dips instead of 3 and paid to the support had schools the money thus saved for the year, the salaries of teachers in the schools of all grades, public and pri-vate, could have been increased more than 120 per cent.

According to government returns for 1920, the people spent twentytwo times as much for luxuries that year as spent for education in 1918, and six billions or 30 per cent. more than we have spent for public edu-cation in all our history. The amount spent for face powder, cosmetics and perfumes is only $12,000,000 less than the total amount spent for public, elementary and secondary schools. In food, luxuries, we ate up in a single year, more than the salaries of all school teachers for the first eighteen years of this century.

cently by the Canadian Forestry Association.

Questions as to the forest resources of Canada, the damage done by forest fires, what trees to choose for planting and how to plant them are being asked by a multitude of young people and the resultant information is being applied to the essay competition. Three substantial cash prizes are being given in each province and the effect of the national effort to stimulate juvenile interest in the forest resources of the country and the multiple benefits of tree planting has secured the hearty endorsation of all the departments of education which are giving every co-operation. which are giving every co-operation

DON'T FOR GIRLS

DON'T FOR GIRLS

Don't say "say,"
And don't say "see?"

Don't say "listen"
And don't say " gee!"

Don't nowder your nose
In the public gaze;

Don't polish your nails
In the public ways.

And don't display

Such a length of limb;

Don't dress on the street
As if going to swim.

Don't talk too much about "him"
and "his."

Don't say often, "I'll say it is,"

And don't say "dearie,"
And don't say "dearie,"
And then I'll say

The millennium's come!
