Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace, of Sussex, N. B., the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie F. Troop, at Granville. Mr. Wallace who is 98 years of age, made the editor a friendly call yesterday. He looks like a man a quarter of a century younger than he is. He is in possession of all his faculties, never been ill in his life, never used liquor or tobacco and we trust he will be spared to exceed the century mark.

Yarmouth Times: In stating on Wednesday that Mrs. Sarah Rozee had left this morning for Paradise to visit her granddaughter, The Times hardly went far enough. It should have said: "Mrs. Sarah Rozee left this morning for Paradise to visit her great granddaughter, Mrs. Daniel Whitman, and also to see her great grandson." In spite of her advanced age, Mrs. Rozee is in possession of all her faculties and is fully able to travel alone. The Times sincerely hopes that she will live to visit her great great grandchildren.

The editor enjoyed a very pleasant Thursday afternoon at the home of his friend, D. W. Smith, for thirty-three years purser on the passenger steamships between Yarmouth and Boston, running on every passenger ship employed during those years on that line, both under the Y. S. S. Co., D. A. Ry., C. P. R. and Eastern S. S.

Co. Few pursers anywhere were better known or more popular with the travelling public. He, today, possesses one of the most comfortable homes in the pretty and thriving village of Melvern Square, surrounded by lots of fruit and vegetables of all kinds. He and Mrs. Smith reside in Massachusetts in the winter time.
