

Annapolis.

Mr. Octavio Monge of Costa Rica, who for the last five years has been studying here has on account of ill health been compelled to return home.

Mr. Robert Armstrong, foreman of the construction work on the pier, has returned to his home at Sydney. Mr. Armstrong will probably return about the middle of March when the concrete work on the piers will be resumed.

Miss Rettle King has gone to Lynn Mass where it is understood she will take a Commercial College course.

Rev. L. Burrows has again returned to supply St Andrews Presbyterian Church for a few Sabbaths.

Mrs. Thomas Buckler who for some time has been visiting in Boston and vicinity has returned much improved in health.

Miss Mabel Troop of Granville Centre has been spending a few days in town the guest of Mrs. Potter.

Mr. Paul E. King son of Capt. William King has entered the service of the Union Bank of Halifax branch here.

The candidates for civic honors are conducting quite a brisk campaign and the election on February 1st will be one of the keenest contests witnessed here for some time.

The following officers have been elected by the A. A. A.—President, C. H. Brittain, Secty. Treas. Geo. C. Herbert, Captain A. R. Buckler. A team composed of Buckler, Mahoney, Rippey, Brittain, McDormand, Herbert and Lombard expect to go to Bridgetown soon to play a friendly game with the Bridgetown boys.

Belle Isle

Mrs. Howard Abbott of Annapolis Royal is visiting relatives and friends in this locality.

Mr. H. H. Wade, travelling salesman for the Empire Lintiment Co. Ltd., is stopping at his old home for a few days.

Miss Bessie Young, of Granville Ferry is spending a few days with her aunt Mrs. Abner P. Nelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Bent were very agreeably surprised a few evenings since, hearing a rap at the door and going to learn who was there, he being the Superintendent of the Upper Granville Sabbath School, found a class of his school accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. J. H. Ray, who had come prepared to spend a social evening. The genial host and hostess placed their home at the disposal of their guests and all were in a few moments enjoying themselves immensely in music sacred songs and social converse. During the evening a most tempting and sumptuous tea was served. Before the hour of retiring came Mrs. Ray on behalf of her class in a few very appropriate remarks presented Mr. Bent, with a very beautiful Teachers Bible. Altho taken by surprise Mr. Bent in a few well chosen sentences expressed to them his sincere thanks for their kind and much appreciated favour.

Mr. Archie F. Troop, one of our most up to date and prosperous young farmers, has erected during the past summer and is now finishing one of the finest stock barns in the locality. It is 60 ft by 40 ft and has a cellar 8 ft in the clear, the complete large frost proof fruit room for storing his fruit, a large room for storing field roots for fattening purposes, a place for storing his farming implements and a spacious manure deposit. It contains the improvements required by the model farmer. A few years since he erected a fine stable for his horses. All his buildings are tastefully painted and not only reflect credit upon himself but are objects of admiration to the passer by.

Mount Rose

Mrs. Susan Risteen who was confined to her bed for the past four months with a broken hip, we are glad to report is improving.

Mr. Frank Bent is at home enjoying the mumps and a boil on his hand.

Miss Eva Daniels, of Lawrencetown, spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. Ritson Bent, and other friends of this place.

The Knitting Circle has purchased two nice chandeliers for the Arlington church. Much credit is due the president, Mrs. Christopher Grant, who has worked faithfully in the interests of the circle. A surprise party was recently tendered Mrs. Grant by the circle, and in token of their appreciation of her services, they presented her with a nice gift. After a very pleasant time refreshments were served, when the circle dispersed wishing that Mrs. Grant might be spared to them many years.

Smith Cove

Mrs. Geo. W. Berry has returned from a visit at her old home in Middleton.

Rev. G. W. F. Glendening, pastor of the Methodist church in this circuit, made a call on his people the other day and found them behaving admirably.

As an illustration of the mild weather we are having it might be mentioned that Capt. Austin left quite a number of carrots in the ground last fall, and on pulling some a day or two ago, found them just as fresh as the summer article. His wife said they were among the best flavored carrots she ever cooked.

Mr. Payne entomologist of Granville Ferry, reports that there is a marked decrease in the number of brown tall moth nests found here this season compared with last year. This will be good news for our fruit growers, who should not relax their efforts to exterminate the pest for the east. However, Mr. Payne finds that the moth is spreading over the trees and the valley will be seriously threatened if the farmers do not bestir themselves.

The officers and scholars of the Baptist Sunday School, along with a number of their friends, called at the residence of Mr. Jonas W. Rice Wednesday evening and presented him with a handsome easy chair. The spokesman informed Mr. Rice that the memento was in appreciation of his services as Superintendent of the Baptist Sunday School for a number of years, and regret was expressed that Mr. Rice had found it necessary to retire from the post. Mr. Rice's reply was a very feeling one. He had been taken completely by surprise and such an expression of overwhelming kindness on the part of his co-workers and neighbors made an impression that could never fade away.

Sunday, the 30th inst. will be a red letter day in the Methodist church here. It will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the church, and special services have been arranged to mark the occasion. Rev. A. McArthur and Dr. Hartz, former pastors in this circuit, will officiate at both services which will be at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. There will be communion at the close of the afternoon service.

The reading room inaugurated by the members of the Bible class has been fixed up and is now ready for occupancy. A good line of books is in sight. Mr. C. F. Chase, of New York, has contributed among other works a set of encyclopaedia. Other friends are taking a keen interest in the movement, and the probabilities are that Smiths Cove will soon be in possession of one of the best public libraries and reading rooms to be found anywhere in the province. The young people of the place are glad that the project has been carried to a successful completion. The room is free to all. Nothing but standard works covering the different departments of knowledge will be placed on the shelves, together with the best periodicals and magazines treating on current events. As a result a taste for wholesome reading will be stimulated, so that in the course of a few years, Smiths Cove should one of the best read communities in Canada.

A pie social was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Sullis, last Monday night. Everybody was good as pie and in this instance it would be impossible to say how good that was. Anyone who has ever eaten pies made by the matrons and their charming daughters of Smiths Cove know how fine they are, and will have an idea therefore, how good all felt, surrounded by the pies and their attractive makers.

Rev. Mr. Whitman, of Granville Ferry, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon. He preached a strong missionary sermon. A collection was taken up for missionary purposes, and a goodly sum realized.

Mr. Casey Morgan went to New Glasgow to attend the farmer's parliament. Mrs. Morgan accompanied him as far as Wolfville, where she will remain with friends until Mr. Morgan calls for her on the return trip.

Mr. A. L. Adams is digging clams and shipping them to the Boston market. Returns show that they bring about $1.50 per barrel in Boston.

Mrs. H. S. Hall will arrive this week to visit Mrs. J. L. Cornwall.

Mrs. Hall and her husband and family are now living in one of the prairie provinces, where they are prospering well, raising wheat. They were former residents of the Cove, and went west about three years ago. They all like Nova Scotia best, and will probably return here to live when they make some money.

Mr. George W. ... the finishing touches on his bungalow. He has had a number of applications regarding the renting of the building, and will have no difficulty in leasing at a good figure.

Mr. Frank McGuise, who recently accepted a position on the Central Vermont Railway, has been offered a situation in the General Passenger office of the Canadian Northern at Winnipeg, and will likely accept.

North Williamston

Last Tuesday evening a number of friends spent a very pleasant time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Delaney.

On Wednesday evening quite a number of friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hilsley. The occasion being a 'Surprise Party' on Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beals. The evening was spent very pleasantly in games and vocal music. A very dainty luncheon was served by the ladies at the close of the evening's enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. Beals were recipients of several gifts, among the most noticeable was a very nice 'Family Bible', a gift from the young men.

Mr. John Ruzgles, of Crossburn spent the past week with friends here.

Last Wednesday night the Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spidell and seized for its victim their young infant, aged four weeks. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. H. Havestock on Friday afternoon. The interment took place at Nictaux Cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Spidell in the death of their first-born.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Charlton spent Saturday and Sunday at Mrs. Charlton's former home, having been called there by the sudden illness of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Durling, who we are sorry to learn is still very ill.

Miss Josie Stevenson is bookkeeping at Crossburn.
