

The Christian Union

IS NOT:

- A Denominational Journal: devoted to the interests of a sect.
- Church News paper: devoted to village gossip and ecclesiastical machinery.
- A Theological paper: devoted to acrimonious debates about abstruse doctrines.
- A Weekly Scrap paper: made up of selections from other newspapers.
- A Daily paper reprinted in the form of a weekly.
- A Story paper: filled up with sensational and sentimental fiction.

IT IS:

- A News paper: giving a full report of the world's history week by week, and interpreting it.
- A Christian paper: applying to every practical question—social, political, domestic, and personal—the principles taught in the New Testament.
- A Progressive paper: teaching about the things of to-day, that its readers may be better prepared for to-morrow.
- A Comprehensive paper: concerned with everything that concerns the well-being of men and women.
- A Home paper: edited in a home, and for home reading.
- A Helpful paper: aiming in every article to make its readers better, wiser, happier.
- A Fearless paper: owing nothing to a party, a sect, or a faction.
- A Clean paper: allowing no "paid advertisements" in its editorial departments, and no dubious advertisements anywhere.
- An Interesting paper: edited on the principle that "if you can't make a paper so attractive that people will be eager to read it, you had better not make it at all."

IT HAS:

- For the Father: The outlook, giving a review of the past week, and a forelook on the week to come; newly letters from Boston, Washington, and Chicago; and editorial discussions of the living questions of the day by the ablest writers in the country.
- For the Mother: a Household Department of instruction and inspiration for the kitchen, the nursery, and the parlor.
- For the Children: always a good story, and always Aunt Patience's Writing-Desk, which cannot be described, but must be seen.
- For the Sunday-School Teacher: two unique papers on the Lesson—one for the Bible Class, one for the Primary Class, both for the Home Circle.
- For Sunday Afternoon: a Department of especially edited religious reading for the Home Circle.
- For Students: an unsurpassed review of all current literature, and a concise, critical, description of all the new publications of
