Mr. Sharp Butterfield, Sandwich, Ont., will give to every one sending us seven new subscribers, at regular rates, a setting of eggs from any variety he breeds.

James O'Donohoe, Waterloo, Ont., will give to the first to send us six new subscribers, a pair of excellent pit games.

A. W. Bessy, St. Catharines, will give to the first to send us six new subscribers at regular rates, a pair of Homing Antwerps, A. No. 1 birds. To the first to send you five new subscribers, a pair of Birmingham Rollers, excellent performers.

To those who are Indebted to Us.

We very much dislike to make any allusion in these pages to the want of promptness of many of our patrons, as we think it has a tendency to lower the fancy in the estimation of the public, but we are again compelled to do it. The result has not been such as to encourage us to repeat the experiment.

We now most respectfully request all to settle up over due accounts at once. Any of our patrons not heard from within a reasonable time after this notice need not blame us if we resort to stringent means to collect, as their action will leave no other course open to us.

By the present order of things the majority of our societies have but one meeting in the year, generally during the holding of their shows, and only occupying a couple of hours. At these meetings the time is fully taken up with routine business connected with the working of the society, and no effort is made to consider questions other than of the immediate interests of the society. These societies, therefore, cannot take hold
