STABLE GLEANINGS.

Horse items for this column will be welcomed rom any part of the country.

FRED WALBAUM has offered $30,000 for the two-year-olds Gotham and Counter

Donains, the great three year old, was defeated by Hornpipe at the Gravesend track the other day.

THE Cincinnati millionaire breeders Fleischman & Sons, have offered $13,000 for Major B. G. Thomas's yearling for Major B. C. brother to Domino.

These is a very fast filly at 8t. Cather-ines by Prince Regent 2:16], dam by General Stanton. A 2:20 record is pre-dicted for her this season.

Dr. Hashonek kicked Correction so hard at the Brooklyn track recently that three ribs were broken. Correction will now be retired to the stud.

THERE is a Hackney mare in Alexander Morton's Gowanbank Stud, near Glas-gow, Scotland, which last year produced a toal when twenty-seven years of age.

A Horse in Goshen, Conn., met his death in a peculiar manner last Sunday. A dog jumped at his nose, when the horse plunged forward and fell, breaking his

Or the 172 jockeys that applied to the American Turf congress for a license, seven were refused, Viz., Freeman, Stoval, Menx, Mattox, Rowe, Vincent, and G. Williams.

Taral, the jockey who piloted Dr. Rice to victory in the Handicap was the recipient from his delighted employer of a sum variously estimated anywhere between $2,500 and $5,000.

Riley Grannin the youthful plunger of the west made a small sized fortune at the Gravesend Track lately. He came out ahead of the books at the end of the day with a sum closely approximating to ALBANI by Hermit recently stepped a mile in 2:34 over the track at Hamilton, Ont. She should make a fast mare, as very little has been done with her since she was a three-year-old. — American

WILLIAM MILNE, foreman of Messrs. Boyle & Littlefield at Gravesend L.I., met his death the other night while getting off a He hailed from Ingersol trolley car. where his father, a prominent veterinary surgeon, still resides.

The Saratoga Racing Association has removed the ban from Mr. J. D. Mathe-son, formerly part owner of Foam and Jockey Mason, which they passed after a Jockey Mason, which they passed after and judgment on Foam's running last sum Mason is still in the bad books of Mammoth Park.

THE Australian bookmaker Sam Allen, who is just back on his native heath from India, says that at Calcutta a man is not allowed to lay odds until he has planked $7000 with the club, which holds the amount until satisfied that he has paid all claims.

The Kentucky Derby was won by Chant the favorite, who is owned by Leigh & Rose, and who also exercise a prior claim for the services of Clifford, the horse which met with such an unfortunate mischance as to be left at the post for the great Brooklyn event.

The Board of Appeals of the American Trotting Association has settled the case of Alix and Pixley. Budd Doble, who Alix was exonerated from any tentions. There was no evidence evil intentions. to warrant the charge that there had been a conspiracy to throw the race.

The stewards of the Jockey Club have fiend, on racing in New York. They declined to accede to the request of the horse owners' committee for some changes in their recently adopted regulations.

The secretary of the Detroit Driving Club has received a letter from O. A. Hickok, of San Francisco, stating that owing to the jury Directum received, and busy season in the stud, he will be un able to start in the free-for-all class at the meeting there July 16 to 22.

COPE STINSON has a yearling in his that is a trotting wonder, the fastest he ever handled of that age. test he ever hammed by Charles H. youngster was bred by Charles H. Kerner, of New York City, and sired by Samur stallion Leonatus, by his fast young stallion Leonatu Alcantara, 2:23. Chicago Horseman

A puntac horse show will be given under the auspices of the Country Club, of Buffalo, upon its grounds June 15 and 16. The club house will be reserved for members, and ample scating capacity and abundant stable room will be provided for non-members. Entrance will be free to

The Orths of Minneapolis who were half owners of Boundless, last year's Ken tucky Derby winner, won over $60,000 on Dr. Rice's victory in the Brooklyn handicap. They got their money on at 100 and 80 to 1 in the Winter Books. Foster, the owner of Dr. Rice, gathered in altogether $102,000.

BOOKMAKER Snedeker who up to the day on which the Brooklyn Handicap was run had held forth at the Gravesend track and had taken many bets at long odds against the horse which subsequently proved the winner, was not to be found then the race was over. He with many thousands of dollars. He got away

CHARLOTTE, P.E.I., will hold a trotting meeting on Sept. 26th and 27th in connection with the Fair. Eleven hundred dollars will be distributed in prizes for the following classes: 3 min. class, $150; 2 year-old Futurity $150; stallion race, $200; three-year-old, $150; free for all, $250, and 2.30 class, $150.

SMART weed, which grows almost every where, boiled with water into a strong decoction and applied to the animals each morning before morning before starting out, by means of a sponge, over the entire body, will effect-ually keep flies off a horse. The effect lasts about twenty-four hours, and during that period no insects will trouble the

COL. STRATHY, of Montreal, received a cheque for five hundred dollars (8500) last week from J. E. Seagram on account horse, George of service fees for his horse, George Frederick, the English Derby winner, at present in Waterloe, Ontario. As George Frederick, only cost $1500 laid down in Montreal he should soon pay for himself

Dox Alonzo and Henry of Navarre two Brooklyn Handicap candidates, the latter it will be remembered running second in that famous race, while the other was practically nowhere, were the only entries in the race for the Standard Stakes for three-year olds at Gravesend distance I mile and a furlong The Don won with apparent case in slow time by a length and a half.

THE latest announcement of Budd Do The latest announcement of Buda Bo-ble's stable for 1894 is the following: Pixley, 2.08; Ellard, 2.12; Prince Her-schel, 2.15½; Lee Russell, 2.16‡; Ballona, 2.19‡; Break-o-day, 2.19‡; Judge Fisher, 2.19 ; Break-o-day, 2.21 ; Nut Pan, pacer, 2.245 2.33] ; Tacoma, pacer, Lee pacer, 2.241; Native State, 2.334; Tacoma, Queen Regent, Direction, Lee Patche Xxall, Timberlake, and Miss Guy; Arion, 2.07%, and Manager, pacer, 2.06%.

A TRAVELER in Ireland engaged a chaise to take him into the country, and had not proceeded far when he pulled up at the decided to employ comest to head off the attack of Peter Delacy, the pool-room the door opened it. "What are you at, man? This isn't where I ordered you to "Whisht! yer stop," said the traveler. "Whisht! yer honor," ejaculated Paddy. "I'm only desavin' the baste. If I bang the door he'll think ye're out, and then he'll cut up the hill like the divil

The horse was by the early Saxon set tlers of Britian used as food, but, as civil-ization advanced, horse-flesh 'became untashionable." The Penitentiale of Egbert mentions it as "not prohibited, though many families will not buy it;" and its use was eventually discountenanced by the council held in the year 785, before Alfwold, in Northumbria, and before Offa in Mercia, as a thing, "not done by any christians in the east," and to be avoided.

A coop story is told of a former clergy man who protested to a liveryman again the strong language used by some of the latter's employes while services were progress on Sunday, says the But The liveryman admitted that here was some reason for complaint, but he held that he had better cause to object than did the minister. "Why" said he, 'my business on Sunday is ruined. You pray so fervently in your church that when I go to hitch a horse after your services his knees are sprung.

A REMARKABLE case of dual impregnation is reported from Kentucky. On the 16th of last May a breeder bred a mare, and eighteen days later she was again served by the same norse. Mond night last she dropped a healthy filly for and the mare appeared to be all right. Three nights later it was found that she had foaled another well formed filly This last one died during the night. breeder in question says this is the first case of the kind that has ever came der his observation, and few, if any, have known of a similar case

D. M'Intosh, head gamekeeper, Loch rosque Forest, Ross-shire, Scotland, rosque Forest, Ross-since, Scotland, has in his possession a Highland pony whose well authenticated age is forty years. Two years ago the pony carried home a magnificent stag on his back to the larder of Lochrosque, and in his work of hill and down dale" he showed a he showed a good and any down that he showed a good deal of his old agility. Now, however, his place is taken up by animals of fewer years, and Hamish, as he is called, is pensioned of duty, living on the hills and feeding with the red deer.

AFTER months of work New York de tectives have succeeded in incarcerating a gang of ruffians who have for the past two years made a business of burning horses and plundering insurance companies The plan of action was to lease a equip it with fine carriages and then flect ample insurance on the whole This accomplished the carriages first disappeared, then the fine horses, and in their place came broken down plugs and worthless shandrydans. The rest of the scheme was to establish a satisfactory alibi, and then burn the structure and its con

A CORRESPONDENT who was recently in California expresses himself in rhyme

We've been to California and seen the Golden shore.
We've come back fully satisfied and won't want any more.
We've learned this far-famed country is not all sunsitine and flowers.
And in many, many things is not half as good as our.

In isolated spots it's a paradisc on earth, The flowers bloom, the orange grows and all is happiness and mirth; spots where old earth has had the slankes. And the lam's so poor the thils so steep, you couldn't rabe good snakes.

A RATHER sensational incident was sociated with the Leighton steeplechase at the Wirral hunt meeting in England lately. Kingfisher, who was weighed out by his owner, fell in the preliminary can-dressing room, where he was found to be suffering from slight concussion. C Robinson, dressed in his ordinary attin then mounted Kingfisher, and bareheaded in the race, made all the ming with him and beat the favorite, Stim Cup, upon whom odds of 5 to 2 were his three lengths.

GEORGE STARR while talking of ti accident which happened to birets said that several Directors showed a fa ility for stubbing their toes and tripping Once he was jogging Direct of Pleasanton and while the little pacer was in a walk he stubbed pitched over and landed on his b George also landed over and pitche top of Direct. The harness, an six or eight pound racing set, was as the horse struggled to get loose rose without a bridle, and one trace One trace was fast to the sulky and s grabbed his tail and held on. trace and the tail hold Direct was he and driven in a circle till he can stand still and that is how Stan Direct by his tail .- Terre Hunte

THE accident reported to have to Directum last week recalls Ma Salisbury's experience with the ch ion's sire Director, soon after he chased him in Kentucky. He was ing the son of Dictator, in Chicago, w he stumbled and fell, whereup gray-haired Californian was so dis that he contemplated disposing trotter instead of taking him to Luckily for himself Mr. Salisbury sidered this, and the clumsy rea proved such a campaigner, and a wards a sire, that he landed a snag tune for the man who gave him a c in the face of his inclination to be ri Directum's fore legs have alr troubled him, and he bandages all last season, but can his brilliant triumphs apparently sen American Sportsman.

ST. THOMAS STAKE ENTRIES

FOLLOWING are the entries for it stakes that closed on May 15th for the St. Thomas meeting to take place Mg 30th to June 1st :

2.50 class pacing, $500. Lord Ferguson, b.s., Ferguson-Ela Allen, C. E. Eaid, Simcoe. Lord Tennyson, ch.g., Onward King-

Daniel Lambert, L. Kennedy, Clinton Babette, b.m., Sir John-Winsel Scott, Dr. L. Karr, Stoney Creek. Lady Lightfoot, b.m., Almont Wilse Lady Lightfoot, b.m., Almont Will Highland Boy, J. H. Lee, Sta

Ruth H., br.m., La Clede Dura Queen, Cothennan Bros., Goshen, In

Sir Harry Wilkes, blk., s. Harry Wils Sir Charles, John W. Gage, Hamba (McKellar).

(McKellar).

Roy B. Stanton, ch.s. Gen. Stantor

Patience, Thos. Barnes, Hamilton.

Dixie Van., b.s., Paris—Minnie W. S. Van Tuyl, Petrolea. b.g., Leotard Panch. Van S.,

Cowper, Dundas. John Sharen, ch.s., Jay Gould-You Jim, John Sharen, Woodstock.
Katie L., b.m., Golden Wilkes - Han-tonian Last, D. T. Lowes, Brampton.

Three-minute Trotting Stake, $500. Mary F., b.m., Gen. Stanton-Cadu

Charles Ray, Toronto.

Evergood, b.s., Evermond—Viets

Evergood Stock Farm, Toronto. Medium, Almedium-Orpheus, M. I Odell, St. Thomas.

Miss Superior, g.m., Superior-field Scott, H. James, Hamilton.

King Forest, b.g., latt Cameron, W. Lady Hope, ch.r. iell, George Page, Bryson, br. s., hief, H. Scott, Calone Star, ch.m., b.s., Billy R. Donald, Wallacel

Senator, b.g., Geo lage, Hamilton (Ma

Rumor, Junior, b.

FIXED DATES Is this column v ng dates, sale dat sends are requeste ONTARIO RA ario Jockey Club sonburg gston. milton Jockey Ch atford dsor J. (milton (J. C. trac)

anomi