MISFORTUNES GOD'S MINISTERS

Some one once came to Brother Giles, a saintly follower of the good Francis of Assisi, saying, "Father, if in our time there should fall some great adversities and tribulations, what should we do then?" Whereunto replied Brother Giles, saying, "My brother, I would have thee to know, that if the Lord were to rain down stones and lightning from heaven, they could not hurt us nor do us any harm, if we were such as we ought to be; for if man were truly what he ought to be, every evil and every tribulation would be turned into blessing. For we know what saith the apostle, that 'all things work together for good to them that love God.' And so likewise to the man of evil-will, all good things are turned to evil and to judgment."—Margaret E. Sangster in, When Angels Come to Men.
