

people has been so in favour of the school, that the fine is to be refunded and the other charge withdrawn. The expressions of regret from the towns-people and newspapers of the unwarranted attack upon the boys have been numerous and sincere, and a number of the most prominent business men formed a Citizens' Committee, to which thanks is due for interest in our behalf. Feeling that we did nothing to originate the trouble, and acted only in self defence, we have nothing with which to reproach ourselves.

THE Judson Missionary Society this month were privileged to have Dr. McLaurin as their speaker. He gave, in a most interesting and graphic way, an account of the methods which a missionary uses in dealing with different classes in India. We all hope that Dr. McLaurin will favour us again.

ON Friday, Nov. 10th, the College met a team from the town of Woodstock in a game of Rugby, on the campus. The school completely outplayed their opponents, and gained an overwhelming triumph with a score of 24 points to 0. The town men were the heavier, but lacked practice and combination work. THE Institute opened on the 4th of October this year, the same as usual. The majority of the students were prompt in their attendance at the opening, thus enabling us to enter upon the work of the year without the necessary delay. A few of our old familiar faces are missed, but their places are filled by others whom we welcome in our midst.

VERY little change has taken place this year in our staff of teachers. We are sorry, however, to have lost Miss Parmelia Bullock from among our number. But we heartily welcome in her place another of our old students who has been engaged in teaching elsewhere for several years. Last year she taught in the city of Hamilton, Ont., but our fellow-worker, Mr. Roy, thought Hamilton was too far away, and to annihilate the distance he brought her here. Consequently, on Sept. 6th last, Miss Elisa Gendreau became Mrs. E. S. Roy, and on Oct. 4th we welcomed her among the staff of teachers. Both Mr. and Mrs. Roy have our best wishes, and may their stay with us be a pleasant one.

It is always a pleasure to welcome visitors in our midst. Up to the present time we have not been deprived of this pleasure. Among
