

ability or money, which can be made subservient to the spread of total abstinence, and the attainment of appropriate legislation.

Since the commencement of the Advocate, various forms of organization have arisen and have done good to an extent not easily estimated. The foundations for these valuable institutions were laid solidly and deep. Thousands of copies of this paper were gratuitously distributed in every part of Canada; and the original promoters of this form of temperance literature contemplate, with gratitude, the noble superstructure now beheld. While we do not pretend to be the special organ of any particular association, we have always had pleasure in noticing the origin and progress of all, and we have every reason to believe that our usefulness from the beginning of the enterprise, through all its phases and advances, has been duly appreciated. But the period has not arrived when either the Advocate or its numerous friends would be guiltless if they were to discontinue their exertions. On the contrary, as for ourselves we feel that the enterprise demands a vigor and zeal scarcely known in the past. THE CRISIS IS COME, and for another year we buckle on our armor, determined to do our duty in conducting the temperance hosts to a victory as perfect as the infirmities of humanity can authorize the most sanguine to anticipate. Compassion for the inebriate, will prompt our benevolence, while uncompromising hostility to the traffic, will dictate our exposures of its iniquity.

As we shall not augment the price of our paper, so we can not promise any increase of its size. All are free to admit, that for cheapness and general excellence, the Advocate is not surpassed; but during the coming year we shall endeavor, by choice PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS, SELECT MUSIC, GOOD PAPER, and SUPERIOR TYPOGRAPHY, to exceed in beauty any former volume.
