sermon will be given to the church, that many may be instructed and edified by its perusal. The candidate for consecration was presented by Bishops Onderdonk and Brownell; the Minutes of the Special Convention at which the candidate was elected, and the signatures to the testimonials, were read by the Rev. Alfred L. Baury, secretary of the convention; the consent of the standing committees by the Rev. Thomas M. Clark, rector of Grace Church, Boston; the letters signifying the consent of the bishops, by the Rev. John L. Watson, of Trinity Church, Boston. The Litany was then said by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Brownell. The presiding bishop then put the questions appointed, which were responded to in a distinct and audible voice by the bishop elect; who was then robed by the Rev. Theodore Edson, rector of St. Anne's Church, Lowell, and the Rev

Edward Ballard, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Pittsfield. We cannot conclude this account of the most interesting and solemn occasion,—the most interesting that has ever transpired within the church in New England, without expressing a hope and trust, that the end will be in accordance with the beginning, and that the wonderful and entire harmony, under the grace of God, with which the whole matter has been commenced and accomplished, may be a precursor of good to the cause of Christ and his leave to doubt the truth of the report in general, and calls particularly for details—"the names of the parties, the time, place, and circumstances of this extravagant proceeding." It happens, singularly enough, that simultaneously with the publication of the Bishop's letter, documents have reached the city which furnish the very details he demands. The following extracts from a letter written by the Postmaster at Chazy, to the editor of the Rochester Democrat, leave no doubt that the Bibles were burned, and in the manner originally stated. The letter is edited Chazy, December 29.

In the Journal of Commerce, of Wednesday, we find a statement of the matter, drawn up and signed by A. D. Brinckerhoff, L. Doolittle, Azariah Hyde and Benjamin Marvin, citizens of Champlain, acting as a committee appointed by a large public meeting to ascertain and report the facts. From this statement we extract as followers.

" About the middle of October last, a Mr. Telmont, a mis-Sionary of the Jesuits (who bear the name of Oblats as we understand) with one or more associates, came to Corbeau, in this town, where the [Roman] Catholic Church is located, and as they say in their own account given of their visit in the Minerve (which we send you) by direction of the [Romish]

r arrival they commenced a protracted meeting, which lasted several weeks; great numbers of [Roman] Catholies from this and the other towns of the county attended day after day; after the meeting had progressed several days, and the way was prepared for it, an order was issued, requiring all who had Bibles, or Testaments, to bring them in to the priests or lay them at the feet of the missionaries, [to use their own language in La Minerve]. The requirement was generally complied with, and day after day Bibles and Testaments were carried in; and after a sufficient number was collected, they By the confession of Telmont, as appears from the affidavit of S. Hubbell, there were several burnings, but only one in public. On the 27th of October, as given in testimony at the public meeting held here, Telmont, who was the prominent man in all the movements, brought out from the house of the resident priest, which is near the church, as many Bibles as he could carry in his arms at three times, and placed them in a pile, in the open yard, and then set fire to them and burned them to ashes. This was done in open day, and in the presence of many spectators. The number burned altogether we are not able accurately to ascertain; more than a hundred no doubt; perhaps two or three hundred

The Canadian [Roman] Catholic population of this county has become, since the rebellion in Canada in 1838, very large, amounting probably to some thousands. In this town alone there are more than a hundred [Roman] Catholic families.— For several years our different town Bible Societies have been in the habit of supplying those of them who could read with Bibles, in common with other destitute families. In 1841, there was a thorough supply of the Canadian as well as other destitute families in most if not all the towns in the county .-In this town alone about sixty [Roman] Catholic families were supplied with French Bibles. During the meeting, the president of our town Bible Society, learning that the [ Rom Catholics were carrying in their Bibles that they might be burned, took with him Silas Hubbell, Esq., a respectable lawyer of this town, and waited on the priests at the Church, and requested, that inasmuch as the Bibles had been given by the different town societies, they should be returned to the donors, and not destroyed. Telmont, with whom they had the interview, replied to their request by saying, that it was out of their power to comply, for they had burned all they had received, and intended to burn all they could get. To this account of the interview with Telmont, and his declarations, we have the affidavit of S. Hubbell, Esq. It was but a short time after these gentlemen parted from Telmont, and returned home, that the public Bible bonfire, of which we have spoken, took place. The day but one before their meeting closed, the nish ] Bishop of Montreal landed at Rouse's Point, in this town, from the steamboat, and was received and escorted by a arge procession on horseback to Corbeau. On the 8th, the last day of the meeting, he administered the sacrament to immense crowds; and there is no question but the Bishop gave his sanction to all the sacrilegious acts of Telmont and his

Finally, we have the subjoined translations from the Minerve of Montreal, confirming, it will be seen, the statement of the committee except as to the actual burning, mention of which appears to have been carefully omitted;

The gentleman alluded to is Mr. J. Simon, L.L.B. The usual forms were gone through in the presence of a numerous body of the benchers and barristers, with the exception that the new made barrister had to be sworn on the Old tongue, had to be sent for. Another difficulty arose, under the following circumstances :- It is the usual practice in the courts of law for gentlemen of the Jewish persuasion to take the oaths with their hats on; but upon this occasion, owing to the size of the wig with which it was necessary that the head of the hon, gentleman should be covered, the hat could not be put on. In consequence, the ceremony was gone through without that customary observance. It is stated that Mr. Simon is the first Jewish barrister connected with the Middle Temple.—Voice of

A circumstance so marked as this is to be regretted, but the fault lies with those who, for purposes best known to themselves, have hurried on this foolish m ing. For ourselves we repeat what we have said before—that the British inhabitants of this Colony are prepared to give their confidence to the ministry when they show that they deserve it. To take any step before that time can only be the work of political agitators, of weak-minded men, and of ignorant and de-

Mr. Viger, in opening the meeting, and all the speakers who followed, echoed the same hopes and were equally sanguine of extraordinary results from the policy pursued by Sir Charles Bagot. The venerable speaker, in particular, spoke of the pre-Bagot. The venerable speaker, in particular, spoke of the present as a "Conservative Government" and as such offering the strongest inducement to every French Canadian to support it,

That policy was an advance towards what Sir Robert Peel had declared to be his intentions respecting Canada—that it should become an integral portion of the Responsible Government they had the substance and the spirit of the British Constitution—an admission that the third branch of the Legislature should have its due influence in the councils of the amentry. Every Government must be tested her to the meeting, or that they were ashamed to be seen in such low company.

ong the statements of conflicting parties it will be difficult for persons at a distance to discover the character of the meeting which took place here yesterday, we give below several Lists containing the names of our most influential citizens; which will throw some light upon the subject. One veracious newspaper says that the requisition calling, the meeting was graced with the signs manual (and crosses) "of every man of influence, wealth and importance in the community, while another declares that the said requisitionists are "the very dregs and outcasts of society." We ourselves said that they would consist of "the French inhabitants of the City and Suburbs, a few whimsical politicians with British names, all the "loose fish," the office seekers, and those who in Cromwell's days used to be called "waiters on providence:" and to these we have since added "a host of Irish names." The result has proved that we were correct in our anticipations. We will now offer a few remarks on the "Irish" signers to the requisition. The respectable and educated portion of the Irish inhabitants of Montreal have with a few exceptions "stood aloof," like their English and Scotch brethren. Those who have in the present instance been made to cut so prominent a figure in a mischievous farce are the same who supported Papineau and Tracey and O'Callaghan in former days. Their leaders are the keepers of low Tayerns and Lodging Houses, and their Magnus Apollo is the celebrated Mr. Pat Brennan. They consist chiefly of immigrants recently arrived in the country, who are endeavour ing to scrape together, by labouring on the public works, &c. as much money as will enable them to purchase a lot of land to settle upon. They know little and care little for the politics with Sir Charles Bagot, took place yesterday, and proved, as respects the number and station of those who attended, and do not love and who as certainly do not love them by hints of do not love and who as certainly do not love them by bints of the quality of the speeches delivered, a somewhat weak and taxation, tythes, &c, and by appeals to their religious prejudices

"We are happy to announce to our fellow-citizens the consolations resulting from a mission which has been performed by the R. P. Oblats, to the Canadians living upon the left bank of the Champlain. The [Romish] Bishop of Montreal, who is an eminent man of God and the country, did not hesitate to detach two of his missionaries, that they might fly to the succour of those who had upon him the double claims of brethren and children. Those good Canadians have worthily responded to these invitations of grace. Young girls were seen walking long distances to take part at the mission, and returning with their feet bleeding and their limbs swollen with fatigue. Young and walked six leagues to the confessional. All sorts of sufferings and fastings testified the ardent desires which they and waked six leagues to the contessional. He afterwards spoke to the assembled Irish for a January 12, 1843,

At this point of the meeting, a unanimous cry was set up for few minutes, in deep commiseration for their persecuted country. and suffering oppressed people! we hope they admired it, Pat must have found it very gratifying to his feelings, to be pitied by a Frenchinan. The true character of the meeting, unfortunately for its godfathers, showed forth before its close. No sooner had Mr. Dunscombe resumed his seat after the last resolution, than an nimous cry arose for Dr. Wolfred Nelson, who obeyed the call, and came forward to address the people; for the first time we believe since a price was set upon his head. He told them, in the course of a long speech, "that he was a living monument of the persecution of by-gone days;" had he not better have said, that he was a living monument of the elemency of a Queen, who did not hang as high as Haman, one who was mainly instrumental in deluging the land with blood? He approved the Governor's policy, he, an attainted and proscribed rebel; -we vish His Excellency joy of his admirers.

The rebellious spirit of the assemblage broke out yet more violently when the Doctor had ceased speaking, and THREE CHEERS FOR PAPINEAU, was the cry. But this, the originators of the meeting thought would be carrying the matter a little far, and the request was not complied with, although, we doubt not, gladly would the approvers of the administration of His Excellency, with the whole of the respectables round the platform, have responded to the cry, if they had dared. They may strive to hide from others the old leaven of rebellion in

The reason offered for not exten-"projection to the slave" was that Hackett had been guilty of an act of felony in the States, before his arrival in this Culony; but an opinion prevailed very generally at the time that this charge was not made out satisfactorily, and that too much precipitation was observable in the matter. From that time we have heard nothing of Hackett, till we alit on the following paragraph in a recent number of the Auti Slavery Report:—
"Nelson Hackert,—We have ascertained from one of the senators of the State of Arkansas, through a friend at Washington, that Nelson Hackett, the fugitive slave who was given u by Sir Charles Bagot, the Oovernor Ceneral of Canada, was taken to Arkansas—there tried for stealing—and publicly ipped—then delivered to his master, by whom he has since been sold to somebody in Texas."-Montreal Courier.

Since our last, there has been a later arrival from England, but there is little addition to the last news. The treaty with China is duly ratified. In Ireland, another murder, arising out e tenure of land, has occurred.

In this Province there is no great change. The health of Sir Charles Bagot seems somewhat better, though subject to relapses. By the next mail we hope to hear something of his Successor. The impression gains ground that the Treason documents will be destroyed by the present unscrupulous Cabinet. It is stated that Mr. E. G. Wakefield, has not paid his Election Bills, and that his constituents are already much disgusted with him. Mr. Price has relinquished his intention resigning his seat. Mr. Matthewson formerly M. P. for Frontenac, is dead. The feeling against the present state of things increases rapidly. In one month, 729 persons have enrolled themselves members of the Constitutional Society for the Brock District.

In New Brunswick, as far as we can gather, the Responsible Government party are being defeated in the Elections now pending. In Newfoundland, under the new mongrel Constitution, the Conservatives are said to have secured a majority, though the Romish priests, with Bishop Fleming at their head, exhibited their accustomed violence and interference.

In the United States, the Legislature has manifested a deermination to contest with Great Britain the possession of the Oregon Territory. Mr. Barclay, it is confidently asserted, has been appointed British Consul at New York, and the choice gives great satisfaction. Commander Mackenzie's Court Martial proceeds, and the evidence heaps proof upon proof of his humanity, prudence, and just severity.

STRANGE WEDDING,-Taking it coolly!-On Tuesday, 27th Decr. last, Jsmes F. Taylor Esq., of Huil, to Miss Betsey Edey, of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Revd. [?] Mr. Williams, at 7 o'clock in the evening, upon the ice, on the Chaudiere Lake.

"Not a drum was heard, or a conjugal not, As alone on the cold ice they hurried."

Ministers of the Methodist persuasion are not authorised by the law to marry persons in Lower Canada. The Revd. Gentleman did not conceive Hymen's torch would afford his optics sufficient light to read the marriage ceremony by, he had therefore provided himself with a lanthorn. After the knot was tied, the happy pair drove off for a more genial clime to enjoy the honey-moon.—Ottawa (Aylmer) Advocate, 3rd Jan.
