

Library holdings

The information shown under Specialized holdings usually has been taken verbatim from the publication "Resources of Canadian Academic and Research Libraries" (Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, 1967). Other information has been obtained from the completed questionnaire returned by the university to the Canadian Institute of International Affairs in the second half of 1968.

Some definitions:

Current session -

The 1968-1969 session

IR subject -

The subjects treated under this head are described in full in the explanatory notes above.

IR per se subject -

This term is restricted to introductory and theoretical courses on international relations as a discipline.