such service, and setting forth the fact, the manner and the date of such service or attempted service, and shall send the said certificate to the Consular Officer whom the request for service was sent. The certificate of service or of attempted service shall be placed on one of the duplicates or attached thereto.

ARTICLE 4

(a) Service may be effected, without any request to or intervention of the authorities of the country of execution, by any of the following methods:—

(1) By a Consular Officer acting for the country of origin;

(2) By an agent appointed for the purpose either by the judicial authority of the country of origin or by the party on whose application the document was issued:

Through the post; or

ver

568

gil

211

ion

cel 01

to try

ne

120

the igh

bi

181

(4) By any other method of service which is not illegal, under the law existing at the time of service, in the country of execution.

(b) All documents served in the manner provided in (1) of the preceding Daragraphs shall, unless the recipient is a subject of the High Contracting Party whose territory the document to be served emanates, either be drawn up the language of the country of execution or be accompanied by a translation such language, certified as correct as prescribed in Article 3 (c).

(c) The High Contracting Parties agree that in principle it is also desirable that the provisions of paragraph (b) of this article should apply to documents served in the manner provided in (2), (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of this Article. Nevertheless, in the absence of any legislation in their respective Pritories making translations obligatory in such cases, the High Contracting Parties do not accept any obligation in this respect.

(d) It is understood that the question of the validity of any service effected the use of any of the methods referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article remain a matter for the free determination of the respective courts of the high Contracting Parties in accordance with their laws.

ARTICLE 5

(a) In any case where documents have been served in accordance with the browisions of Article 3, the High Contracting Party, by whose Consular Officer the request for service was addressed, shall repay to the other High Contracting party any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country of execution to the persons employed to effect service, and any charges and expenses incurred in effecting service in a special manner. These charges and Penses incurred in effecting service in a special interest of that the courts of the courts of that the courts of that the courts of the courts of the courts of that the courts of the court country.

(b) Repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the Ompetent authority by whom the service has been effected from the Consular Officer by whom the service has been encoded him the certificate brovided for in Article 3 (h). (c) Except as provided above, no fees of any description shall be payable by (c) Except as provided above, no fees of any description state of any description. High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the service of any

III.—Taking of Evidence

ARTICLE 6

ly parties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the other When a judicial authority in the territory of one of the High Contract-Parties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the Contracting Party, such evidence may be taken, whatever the nationality the parties or witnesses may be, in any one of the ways prescribed in Articles 7 or 8.