

- (b) If a person is entitled to an old age benefit under the Old Age Security Act of Canada, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, this benefit shall be payable in the territory of Portugal if that person has accumulated, in all, under that Act at least twenty years of residence in Canada.
- (c) If a person is entitled to an old age benefit under the rules set out in subsections 3(1) (a) and (b) of the Old Age Security Act, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, but has not accumulated twenty years of residence in Canada, a partial benefit shall be payable to him in the territory of Portugal if the periods of residence in the territory of the two Parties when totalized according to the rules set out in paragraph 4 of this Article, represent at least twenty years. The amount of old age benefit payable in the territory of Portugal shall, in this case, be calculated in accordance with the principles governing the payment of the partial pension payable, according to paragraphs 3 (1.1) to 3 (1.4) inclusive of the Old Age Security Act and the details of application of the paragraphs of that Act to this Agreement shall be defined by the administrative arrangement provided for in Article XVII.
- (d) If a person is entitled to a partial pension according to the rules in paragraph 3 (1.1) to 3 (1.4) inclusive of the Old Age Security Act, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, the partial pension shall be payable in the territory of Portugal if the periods of residence in the territory of the two Parties when totalized according to the rules set out in paragraph 4 of this Article equal at least twenty years.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the applicable legislation of Canada and Portugal for the purposes of the other paragraphs of this Article, is, respectively, the legislation of Portugal with respect to the general and special schemes of social security and the Canadian Old Age Security Act, with the exception of paragraph 3(1) of that Act.

3. If a person is not entitled to an old age benefit on the basis of the periods credited under the legislation of one of the Parties, entitlement to that benefit shall be determined by totalizing these periods and those stipulated in the following paragraph of this Article, provided that these periods do not overlap.

4. (a) For purposes of establishing entitlement to an old age benefit payable by Canada under paragraph 5 of this Article, residence in the territory of Portugal after the age specified and determined in the administrative arrangements with respect to the legislation of Canada shall be counted as residence in the territory of Canada.

(b) For purposes of establishing entitlement to an old age benefit payable by Portugal under paragraph 5 of this Article.

- (i) a month ending on or before December 31, 1965 which would be recognized as a month of residence under the Old Age Security Act shall be treated as a month of contributions under the legislation of Portugal;
