

In conclusion, Mr. Chairman, we cannot afford to mark time. If we do not meet the challenges before us, we will surely also fail to create the growth opportunities which trade expansion would bring and which all our economies and societies need so much.