PRAYERS

Pursuant to Standing Order 39(4), the following Question was made an Order of the House for a Return:

No. 1,859—Mr. Orlikow

1. In the past year, in how many cases did the government charge and prosecute companies for violations of the Combines Investigation Act, except for cases under section 33(c)?

2. In each case (a) what were the names of the companies involved (b) what were the names of the companies found guilty and what were the penalties imposed by the Court?

3. What were the costs to the government of investigating and prosecuting the above cases, exclusive of the salaries of permanent government employees, but including fees paid to lawyers, court reporters and other officials, travelling expenses for officers of the department, cost of transcripts, etc.?—Sessional Paper No. 283-2/1,859.

Mr. Jerome, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, presented,—Return to the foregoing Order.

Bill C-176, An Act to establish the National Farm Products Marketing Council and to authorize the establishment of national marketing agencies for farm products, as reported (with amendments) from the Standing Committee on Agriculture, was again considered at the report stage.

Whereupon, the House resumed debate on the motion of Mr. Horner, seconded by Mr. McIntosh,—That Bill C-176, An Act to establish the National Farm Products Marketing Council and to authorize the establishment of national marketing agencies for farm products, be amended by deleting from subclause (c) of Clause 2 all the words after the word "agriculture" at line 14, page 1.

And on the motion of Mr. Horner, seconded by Mr. Crouse,—That Bill C-176, An Act to establish the National Farm Products Marketing Council and to authorize the establishment of national marketing agencies for farm products, be amended by deleting paragraph (ii) of subclause (g) of Clause 2 at page 3.

And on the motion of Mr. Horner, seconded by Mr. Crouse,—That Bill C-176, An Act to establish the National Farm Products Marketing Council and to au-
