22nd September, 1921.

Dear Sir Arthur Currie,

This letter will serve to introduce to you Doctor J.P. Dunston who is Commissioner of Mentally affected persons for the Union of South Africa.

Doctor Dunston is paying a visit to the Dominion in connection with his official duties and he will greatly appreciate any guidance or assistance that you may be able to offer him.

Commending him to your kind consideration,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

General Sir Arthur Currie, K.C.B. &c
